Florida State
both a university and a place in the sun an invitation both to learn and to feel and above all an education an exercise of the mind and body
the spirit seeking knowledge in the fountain of life

Co-eds, minus surfboards, glowing in Florida sunlight little girls to maturity and learning under the eternal watchfullness of leaves and Spanish moss
they come and they go, like flowers

The spirit of Florida State rooted in the respected traditions of the Old South bursting forth in new ideas, new excitement like the blaring of a victory trumpet or the dancing flames of a bonfire
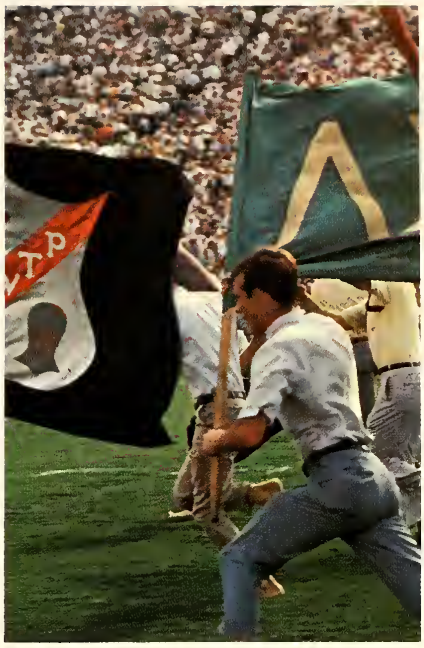
it roars out its call: "Follow me"



Fine arts in Florida-the finest in the South
a growing tradition of cultural excellence from folk-rock to Figaro, flamenco to Faust stirring the mind with adventure and wisdom to the experience of learning to a vision of man

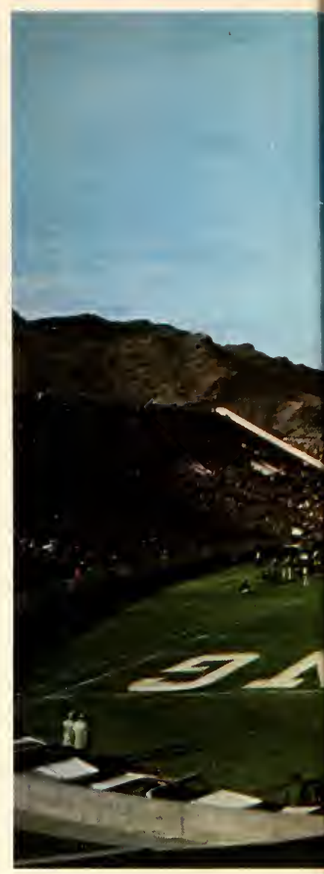
Seminoles Earn Sun Bowl Bid



Top rushing defense in the nation faced the country's fifth best passing team as Wyoming and Florida State vied Christmas Eve in the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas. The Cowboys combined a fierce ground defense with a steady running attack to coral the Seminoles 28-20.

Wyoming fullback Jim Kiick opened the scoring with a one-yard plunge set up by Vic Washington's long punt return. Just before half-time, FSU signal caller, Kim Hammond, electrified the crowd by tossing long scoring aerials to Ron Sellers and T.K. Wetherell, giving the Seminoles a 14-7 lead.

In the second half, Kiick broke through the Florida State line and sped forty-seven yards to paydirt. Wyoming quarterback Rick Egloff hurled one TD pass and then scrambled fourteen yards for the clinching tally.

Hammond led a spirited Tribe comeback, again connecting with Sellers for a score, but the sun set on Seminole hopes as time ran out.

DR. ROBERT S. MULLIKEN
Professor of Chemical Physics

In Dedication

DR. ROBERT S. MULLIKEN, Nobel Prize recipient, is congratulated by President John E. Champion and Michael Kasha.

On November 3, 1966, Dr. Robert S. Mulliken became the 1966 Nobel Laureate in Chemistry. Having served Florida State as Distinguished Research Professor of Chemical Physics, he won much respect and esteem by bringing to Florida the first Nobel Prize in science.

His research and discoveries are hailed not only by Florida State and the Nobel Committee, for his list of honors includes those from colleges, universities and academies across the country. He has received five major awards from the American Chemical Society and received the Gold Medal Award for Scientific Achievement from the City College of New York in 1965.

Dr. Mulliken's fame and recognition as a Nobel Laureate is the result of his development of the molecular orbital theory, which describes the path which electrons travel in complex molecules. The theory is important because it helps scientists predict the behavior of molecules from the nature of the individual atoms which make them up. His work has been said to have bridged the gap between the atom and the molecule.

In pride and recognition of his many efforts and achievements that have expanded the world's horizons in science, we dedicate the 1967 TALLY-HO, to Dr. Robert Sanderson Mulliken.

Academics

Governor Claude R. Kirk

FSU's Board of Regents was led this year by the recently elected Claude R. Kirk, the first Republican to be elected Governor of Florida since the Reconstruction Period following the Civil War. The Board of Regents are the state's and the governor's advisors on financial, educational and physical planning of the five state universities which comprise the Florida University System. Of utmost concern to the Board is the financial situation of the Florida schools.

The BOR consists of an executive director and nine members who are chosen from regions throughout the state of Florida.

As the Union complex continued to bring together a larger number of students, the administration strove to unify the activities and functions of FSU's various departments. The always increasing quality of the educational program was an indication of our leaders' competence and hard work.

Each administrator, whether returning to a post from the previous year or replacing a former member of this select group, exerted a profound influence on the student body. Acting under the guidance of our new president, these men and women created an aura of greatness appropriate to the true spirit of today's Florida State University.

School of Arts and Sciences

To receive a bachelor's degree from the College of Arts and Sciences, the student must fulfill the general education requirements and have completed two years of college foreign language study or its equivalent. Students enrolled in this area may also prepare and become certified to teach on the secondary level.

The College of Arts and Sciences is concerned with basic fields of knowledge in the areas of natural sciences, humanities, and social sciences. Perhaps the most diversified college in the university, this school is composed of twenty four departments and offers a variety of possibilities for majors and minors.

Orientated toward encouraging graduate study, the college attempts to prevent specialization and to maintain a sound balance in the total educational program.

School of Business

CHARLES A. ROVETTA
Dean of the School of Business
M.B.A., University of Chicago

Liberal knowledge of the social, economic and political forces in business operations was the foundation provided by School of Business. Emphasis was placed on the subject matter which stressed logical reasoning, effective communicating, and rational deducing.

Professional development and research received key emphasis in the School of Business. Teaching the basic disciplines which underlay management concepts, the School felt the need to be concerned with current problems as well as those which will face business executives in the twenty-first century.

Course offerings were in the field of accounting, finance, management, marketing, and risk and insurance. Special programs in hotel and restaurant management and multinational business operations were also offered. Adult educational services were furnished for those students unable to attend regular classes.

Striving for a good understanding of our education system, of human behavior, and of modern teaching techniques, was the ambition of Education majors. Backed by numerous liberal arts courses, students developed insight and answers for classroom problems.

Harnessed ideas were unfolded at the Student National Education meetings where guest speakers from the national organizations lectured. Major objectives of the School was to furnish a balanced teacher education program which would graduate teachers responsible in education leadership.

Internship, usually the first term of one's senior year, provided early experience in teaching, permitting the intern to study student behavior and recognize problems he would soon be expected to cope with. Kappa Delta Pi and Phi Kappa Phi were honoraries for outstanding education scholars.

College of Engineering Science

The School of Engineering Science has as its primary objective the preparation of superior students for careers in engineering research, industry, advanced development and college teaching. Emphasis is placed on mathematics and the basic sciences, fundamental ideas of engineering, and a broad liberal arts background.

A co-op program is provided by the School for students who wish to alternate terms of study with terms of employment in engineering organizations. Through this method, a student may defray the cost of his education through participation in the program and gain valuable experience on the job; through this training, he will be more mature professionally by the time he completes his degree requirements.

School of Home Economics

STUDENTS LEARN THAT FOOD WEIGHT MEASURES NUTRITION

Ignorance of home and community problems and their solutions is quickly being stamped out by courses in home economics. Spirited class discussions further understanding of the need for satisfactory and effective family living and responsible citizenship.

Pride in future home life inspires many to take courses offered in Food and Nutrition, Clothing and Textiles, and Home and Family Life. An understanding of the seemingly endless housekeeping problems leads to a successful marriage.

Exhaustive research by students prepares them for future jobs as teachers, dietitians, and fashion, clothing, and textiles design. Omicron Nu, and Omicron Delta Epsilon, are academic honoraries open for those displaying leadership, scholarship, and research in home economics.

LAB SESSIONS in textiles provide students with opportunities for instruction in fabric analysis.

College of Law

MASON LADD
Dean of the College of Law
S.J.D., Harvard University

After years of discussion in the legislature, the College of Law was opened last September. The new school was the beneficiary of a library of 13,000 volumes and reached twice the expected enrollment with a student body of 110.

This year only freshman classes were taught. Upperclassmen courses, however, were to be added to the curriculum each year to accomodate the advancing students. Classes during the first year of operation were held in the Longmire Building as plans were made for a new location across from the State Supreme Court building.

An experimental program was used with the charter class. Encouraging individual instruction with professors throughout the course, large lecture classes were followed by small group meetings of about twenty students.

Plans for the next several years included public service by second or third year students as assistant public defenders and legal aids.

Library School

The primary objective of the Library School at Florida State is to offer a professional education for librarians for service in all types of libraries. The curricula are basically post-graduate but gives courses at the undergraduate level for certification as school librarians in cooperation with the College of Arts and Sciences.

A secondary objective of the school is to help all students develop an appreciation of the library and its role in society.

The master's degree program with specialization in school library service fulfills the requirements for certification in Florida as well as other states. The master's program is accredited by the American Library Association.

Housed in the Strozier Library, facilities for student use include classrooms, a cataloging laboratory, student lounge and a curriculum lounge. With the new addition to be finished in the spring, the library will hold an additional 70,000,000 books.

School of Music

Ranked among the top ten in the nation, the School of Music guaranteed the university student personal experience and knowledge of modern music techniques. Employing the aid of students, the School hosted many professional meetings, operas, and symphonies.

Persistence was appreciated after attending the fine performances executed entirely by students in recitals and concerts. One phase of participation was illustrated by the marching band which performed in football games, parades, and broke up into smaller bands for student activities.

Voice, theory, and composition were a few of the numerous subjects open to music majors, graduates, and interested students. Sigma Alpha Iota, Kappa Kappa Psi, Phi Mu Alpha, and Tau Beta Sigma were music honoraries for exceptional students.

School of Nursing

The School of Nursing prepares young men and women for the professional practice of nursing and the eventual admission of above average students to graduate programs in nursing.

Authorized in 1950, the School achieved full national accreditation on May 1, 1958. The School was accredited in 1964 for the plan whereby registered nurse students are admitted to the program.

Upon graduation, a student receives the Bachelor of Science degree and then takes the State Board Examination to obtain the title Registered Nurse. Nurses who have a college education with a nursing major are increasingly in demand for a wide variety of positions. They are qualified to enter both rural and urban regions and to give valuable assistance to communities in meeting health needs, and in raising standards.

The School of Social Welfare is one of the most outstanding schools in the university as well as one of the best in the nation. The reputation of this school is known everywhere. This fact allows for a greater variety of students which also makes a great demand on the curricula offered.

Various fields of study are offered including criminolcgy, marriage and family living, juvenile care, and correctional institutions. The internship program, which includes internship in a variety of social agencies and a summer internshi p in Criminology and Corrections, places the student in a setting like a boy's industrial farm.

To meet the challenge of the future, the School of Social Welfare expands its program every year to include more and better opportunities for the students. A degree will enable the graduate to enter a host of occupations and he will discover that his curricula has aided him in preparing to be an intelligent and responsible citizen.

Registration Activities

Registration began early in September as Florida State began her last year under the trimester system. Students flocked to Tallahassee in all modes of transportation from every section of Florida and all parts of the United States only to become engulfed in a mass scramble for classes. Bewildered freshmen wandered around campus with newly acquired friends and maps while upperclassmen held joyful reunions.

After struggling for hours at registration, many of the record 14,319 students visited the University Union for Activities Night. They were entertained with a variety of displays, talks, and performances by student organizations. A dance in the university ballroom highlighted the evening with music furnished by the Chaotics.

Formal open house receptions commenced the first two weeks of Panhellenic rush. Rushees paraded across campus to the well-polished Greek houses where sororities entertained with "ice-water teas" and fraternities sponsored a series of informal combo parties.

Just as fraternities and sororities must be selective in their membership, so must the rushees be in choosing the chapter they wish to pledge. Prospective pledges were invited to informal gatherings with skits and dinners that they might become better acquainted with the Greek way of life.

Signing the preferentials signified the end of rush. Each rushee chose at most three houses. Final selections for membership were made by sorority and fraternity members after the preferential dinners.

Bids, submitted the following morning, were received in tears of surprise and relief. Pledging took place that afternoon.

Although Homecoming 1966 did not officially begin until the dismissal of classes at noon on Friday, glimpses of the upcoming festivities could be seen throughout the campus. Fraternities and sororities were working on the colorful floats for the Friday afternoon parade. This year's theme, " A Champion Year for FSU," was displayed in the decorations on the fronts of dormitories and off-campus housing.

Friday evening was highlighted by a spirited pep rally. In the program of the traditional Pow Wow were three skits presented by Sigma Kappa, Sigma Chi, and Alpha Chi Omega. The culmination of the program was the crowning of Miss Toni Beals as the 1966 Homecoming Queen. Following the Pow Wow was the Lettermen concert held in Tully Gym. Their performance captivated the audience and climaxed the first day's celebration of Homecoming.

THE DEMON DEACONS SOON REALIZED THAT IT WAS--A CHAMPION YEAR FOR FSU

Friday night of FSU's Homecoming Weekend saw the re-enactment of the colorful Pow Wow. Climaxing a night of songs and skits was the selection of the Homecoming Queen of 1966 from the five finalists vying for the honor. This year's title was awarded to the lovely Toni Beals of Kappa Alpha Theta, a senior from St. Augustine. Miss Beals, who was head cheerleader and Greek Goddess, had also been a member of Gymkana Court. The crowning of the new queen was made by last year's reigning beauty, Anna Faulds. Her Highness then took her seat amid her court on a brightly-lit throne at the center of Campbell Stadium. Runners-up Barbara Huntress, Jan Dunn, Jackie Fain and Diana Teghtmeyer all added to the beauty of the most impressive event.

D. WILLIAMS (70) RUSHES TO AID UNIDENTIFIED FSU PLAYER STRUGGLING FIERCELY WITH DEACON DEFENDERS

An awakened FSU defense and offense combined to shut out the Demon Deacons 28-0 before a packed Homecoming crowd at Campbell Stadium. As usual, the stars of the show were the dynamic duo, Gary Pajcic and Ron Sellers, who put on an aerial spectacular that resulted in a record-setting 86-yard touchdown. The Seminoles hit hard and often, with Moreman and Green bowling over for the first two scores, thus setting the stage for Pajcic's third-period bomb. The Meeces proved to be just as aggressive, picking off two Wake Forest passes and refusing to let the Deacons hang a single point on the scoreboard. A final attack engineered by Kim Hammond in the closing minutes gave FSU another TD, thus putting the finishing touches on a much-prophesied Homecoming victory.

"Caravan" Highlights Gymkana

Combining beauty with showmanship and precision, Gymkana 1966 dazzeled its audience with a spectacular production based on a caravan bringing wares from far countries. The wares carried by each caravan were indicative of materials native to each country.

"Caravan" was the result of several months of hard work and dedication by a 100-student troup interested in training both mind and body to function together in the creation of beauty, agility, versatility and gracefulness of form. Highlights of the show included performances by internationally known FSU student gymnasts and the nationally famous Tallahassee Tumbling Tots in breath-taking acts on the high bar, still rings, side horse, trampoline, parallel bars, and flying rings.

Students who participate in Gymkana give time and energy to the perfection of their show by working on the backdrops and props, as well as organizing and performing their own acts. Evidence of hours of work and much talent was shown not only by the perfection of every act, but also in the settings. This year Gymkana used desert surroundings in order to enhance their theme, Caravans.

Beauty, poise, and charm were used in selecting 20 girls as members of a court of honor. Each girl was then judged on her co-operation and the costume which she designed to suit the theme, and the Court was announced at the final performance. This year Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity was presented with the service award, and the crowning of Patricia Whitman as Miss Gymkana of 1966 climaxed the show.

Soap Box Derby

Early in the Winter Trimester, the fraternities on campus began the tedious work of constructing a soap-box car so that they could participate in the annual race down College Avenue. After the car was complete, the fraternity instructed members of the sorority with which they had been paired on the procedures of driving the vehicles. In the Spring, the long-awaited Soap Box Derby sponsored by Phi Delta Theta was held. Crowds lined up along the sidewalks and the event began with the starting signal. Cheers went up as the cars neared the Finish Line and the winning team was awarded the annual trophy.

Charity Bowl was officially launched as a campus tradition on November 5 of this year by the men of Alpha Phi Omega in conjunction with the Florida State Department of Intramurals. The Bowl was a flag football game in which a team of Greek All-Stars were pitted against a team of Independent All-Stars. The result of this high scoring contest was a victory for the Greeks, with the final score reading 44-25. The proceeds of the game resulted in scholarships for needy students. After the game FSU's President John Champion crowned the first Charity Bowl Queen-Miss Dee Van Hillo, a junior sponsored by the Greeks, Miss Vickie Woodall, the runner-up, represented the Independents.

Circus Perfects Big Top Show

Throughout the year those students who participate in Circus are active in all the angles of preparing for the Big Top show in the Spring. The Florida State "Flying High" Circus is the only collegiate show of its type in existence. The reputation of the show has received world-wide acclaim not only for its uniqueness but also for the quality of its performances. In order for the Circus to achieve perfection, it is necessary for each participant to spend his spare time working on various phases of preparation. All aspects of the show, including putting up the tent and making costumes, are done entirely by the students. Although hours of hard work are required from the Circus performers, the learning experience and the sense of accomplishment must make their time and effort worthwhile, because every year the performance under the Big Top lives up to its reputation of excellence.

Circus Celebrates 20th Year

As the lights grow dim a voice proudly announces the first act, and the audience is led into a world of daring and excitement. The FSU "Flying High" Circus is ready to present its annual show. The brilliant colors of the costumes, the sawdust, and the popcorn and peanuts all add to the fascinating atmosphere that pervades throughout the tent. As the show proceeds, the spectators become more and more involved with the performers; barely audible gasps can be detected as the high wire walker gets to the other side, and hearts skip a beat when the girl on the flying trapeze completes her "double." At the end of the show, the spell of enchantment is broken and the performers once again become the students who attend the Florida State University.

This year marked the 20th anniversary of FSU's Circus, and those who worked in this year's event celebrated by producing the "best show ever."

Physical exercise and a lot of time and effort are the ingredients required for the performances that are given on the Florida State campus each Spring by the Theatre Dance Group and by Tarpon Club.

Early in the Fall trimester people who show an interest in these groups are encouraged to apply for membership. After the tryouts are over, the hard work begins. Members of both groups not only spend time practicing, they also design costumes, compose the choreography, and work with lighting and sets. The culmination of the months of work is achieved when the Theatre Dance Group presents an evening of ballet and when Tarpon performs feats of precision timing in the water. The hard work which has been put into these shows is made evident by the professional quality of the performances.

THAT EGG JUST HAS TO BE CAUGHT

A cold, wind-swept Band Field in late February was the scene of this year's famed Sigma Chi Derby. Nevertheless, hundreds of sorority girls, as well as scores of cheering onlookers, braved the cold to put on one of the most unforgettable events of the year. Excitement ran high as girls competed in the Tug-of-War, the Dizzy-Izzy Relay, a mud-filled Money Hunt and a very unusual Mystery Event. The pledges also contributed to the fun-filled afternoon with some hysterical costuming and production numbers by the girls in the "Around-the-World" theme of the Deck-a-Pledge event. Overall winners of the Derby were the KD's, who also won the spirit Trophy, with the ADPi's and Pi Phi's coming in second and third. Susan Scaggs of ADPi was voted Derby Queen in a very close contest. In all, a fine, though somewhat spine-chilling, time was had by all in this traditional contest.

Graduation

At the end of every trimester, after the drudgery of final exams had passed away, the commencement ceremony bestowed upon those candidates the degree which each one of them had earned in hiswork here at Florida State. Learning, research, and facing and adjusting to new experiences and new situations composed the list of ingredients which went into each BA and BS. As the symbolic changing of the tassels occured, each student became a graduate and was then faced with new opportunities and with new responsibilities. University life had added four years of experience to the lives of those who were receiving their diploma at the ceremony, and after that evening those graduates of the Florida State University would be challenged by the broad horizons of an exciting new world.

PI BETA PHI SORORITY COMPETES TO PLACE IN THE WOMEN'S DIVISION

Early in the trimester the sounds of voices could be heard in the fraternity and sorority houses, the dormitories, and off-campus organizations. All of these groups were practicing for competition in the annual Campus Sing, which was sponsored by Phi Mu Alpha and Sigma Alpha Iota. These two music honoraries planned and presented a well-attended song fest. Each entry was judged on poise, choice of selections, and tone quality.

This year Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority won first place in the Women's Division, while Kappa Delta and Pi Beta Phi took second and third place. The honors in the Men's Division were snared by Kellum Hall, Pi Kappa Phi and Tau Kappa Epsilon. Wesley Foundation, the Baptist Student Union, and Kappa Sigma and Chi Omega won places in the competition held for male and female voices.

Miss Tally Ho Contest

Continuing the tradition begun two years ago, the TALLY HO again held the Miss Tally Ho Contest. The contestants were sponsored by various organizations on campus and were judged on a basis of poise, facial beauty, figure, and grooming. Five minute interviews were held and through these the judges were able to select the semifinalists. The final judging was held in Moore Auditorium and the new Miss Tally Ho, Pam Willits was crowned by Terry Hudson, Editor-in-Chief of the TALLY HO and by Marilyn Hendricks, Miss Tally Ho for 1967.

The creation of a yearbook involves many dedicated people and many long hours of hard work. Lack of experience was more than compensated for by a tremendous interest shown in the fall of 1966. This interest was exploited, resulting not only in an outstanding Tally Ho, but also in a bumper crop of editors and workers for next year.

Basing the theme of the book on our own state of Florida, plans and ideas slowly developed into reality as the year passed and each page was carefully prepared. In words and pictures, the Tally Ho staff has attempted to present the story of the year 1967 at Florida State University.

Under new leadership and working with a large and competent staff the Flambeau shifted into high gear in its fifth year of daily operation.

Editor Dave Nelsen instituted many wide-sweeping and dynamic changes in the appearance and style of the campus newspaper. The goal was to raise the Flambeau image and give the students better service.

Some of the more important changes included the installation of an Associated Press wire; an expansion to eight pages minimum; different headline styles; more depth in features and news stories; and many other improvements and modifications.

Smoke Signals Goes Sporty

With the goal of something for everyone, the staff of the SMOKE SIGNALS covered a variety of topics for the year, including such attractions as the visiting entertainers the Sopwith Camel, performers of the American Theatre Ballet, and a traveling sect of croquette players from that notoriously famous off-campus "rag" known as the CHARLATAN. It was a fun year for all concerned with the Seminoles only general interest magazine as it was led through a year under the guiding hands of its rookie chief, Rick Obermeyer. Although the SIGNALS couldn't have any nude pin-up feature girls, it did manage a very sharp collection of Florida State coeds to adorn its pages.

Legend

THE LEGEND, which first appeared in 1958 under the title of the Florida State University Literary Anthology, grew out of a need for publication of sesious student writing. After the first successful issue, it assumed the name of THE LEGEND.

Up until this year, THE LEGEND has been a yearly anthology containing poems, essays, and short stories. This year its contents have been extended to include paintings, photography, etchings, and sculpture. Material for the new "Fine Arts Anthology" is from students enrolled in the University.

Edited by Maxine Brewer, THE LEGEND well represented many different styles of writers and artists. Some of the works included, "Still Life," "Sing Matador Sing," "Interior," and "Jericho."

The Pow Wow

Serving as the student's first introduction to college life at FSU, the POW WOW made its traditional appearance during Orientation Week in the fall. Aside from acquainting the student with Florida State and its traditions, the handbook also gave information concerning organizations, publications, and other extra-curricular activities. Student Government officers and members of the faculty were given introductions in the POW WOW.

University rules and regulations, along with the Florida State Student Body Constitution, were found in the handbook, which served to guide students in the Seminole way of life.

The Student Publications Lab, under the direction of Mr. Grady Toler, was established in 1959 for the purpose of expediting the publishing of student publications and reducing their cost. The Florida Flambeau, Tally Ho, Smoke Signals and Legend transfer money to the Lab in order that the Lab may finance its operation. The Lab, in return, provides composition, camera ready copy and printing advice to each of the publications. The Student Publications Lab also provides a service for inter-departmental agencies and offers a duplicating service to students.

Board of Student Publications

Members of the faculty and the student body compose the Florida State Board of Publications. Of these the faculty members were appointed by the President of the University, while three of the students were elected by the student body and the other two were appointed by the Student Body President. Editors are ex-officio members of the Board.

The Board of Publications coordinated all of the activities of the various university publications, formulated the policies by which they were operated, and elected their editors. These editors and their staffs, in conjunction with the Board, publish the daily FLAMBEAU, the TALLY HO, SMOKE SIGNALS, the POW WOW, and the LEGEND.

With the help of his assistant, Dennis Helms, Sooner was responsible for maintaining accurate records of the subscriptions, expenses, and advertisements involved in student publications. He also served as an ex-officio member of the Board of Publications.

Advertising Manager, Rick Steinke, was responsible for the direction of much of the production of the FLAMBEAU and SMOKE SIGNALS. Working under him, a staff of salesmen provided the advertising that Rick laid out for the two publications.

LARRY GONZALEZ
Student Body President

This year Student Government placed primary emphasis on catering to the needs of all the students. With this as its aim and under the able leadership of President Larry Gonzales, the members of his Cabinet and Student Senate worked on a record number of Legislation.

The executive branch of Student Government prepared two variations of a bonding service to alleviate the high deposit rates imposed on off-campus students. The president's office also examined the utility billing of married students in Alumni Village.

Reduced rates at off-campus establishments were also sought through the new Student Discount service. Women's Senate was charged with the responsibility of revising the liberalizing the rules for co-eds.

In addition to the new innovations, Student Government continued to administer such programs as the Student Insurance Program, the Student Depository, and the budgeting of activities fees for the scores of student organizations.

Cabinet

The offices on the third floor of the Union have often been accused of being out of touch with the students. Not so this year with the periodic reports and services which the members of Larry Gonzalez's Cabinet have managed to put into effect. The Secretary of Academic Affairs Office worked on the student evaluation of the faculty and also made a study of student stress and development in coordination with the National Students Association. The Election Commission studied a new reapportionment bill whereby student senators would be elected from academic areas, rather than living areas. The Secretary of Communications has been responsible for the increased communications between various branches of student government, by such media as Senate Shouts, the Student Government scrapbook, and periodic third floor Union reports to keep the student body informed.

Student Senate

The Student Senate at Florida State represents the legislative branch of the government. This year Senate worked with a large number of problems, and each Senator's concern for the welfare of the students and their community was evinced by the number of bills presented in the meetings held weekly on the third floor of the Union.

The combined efforts of Men's and Women's Senate produced a vast amount of legislation which will affect the FSU student in the coming fall quarter. Revisions in Women's Rules, the elimination of Squaw Law, the reorganization of the Senate and a revision of the Honor Code are only a few of the problems with which the solons dealt.

Junior Counselors

A word of advice, help in picking out the right classes, and a bit of imparted information on the college male are all part of the information service of the Junior Counselor. Each year sophomore girls are chosen by a board to become the "JC's" of the coming year. They are selected for their friendliness and compatability with others, for their willingness to serve and for the respect that they have earned during their college careers. At the beginning of every year, the new freshman is greeted by the smiling face which will soon turn into one of her best friends on the FSU campus. Serving as a student advisior, the Junior Counselor helps the new freshmen become the seasoned students out of which sophomores are made and she gains just a little insight into human nature and learns just a little more about herself through the process.

Union Directors

Under a capable staff the University Union was able to succeed in carrying on a hectic and successful year of activities. Dr. Herb Reinhard, Mr. Archie Kramer, Miss Marie Williams and Miss Carolyn Krentzman worked with the Union Board and with the Program Council in providing the students with a series of events throughout the year.

The Union staff worked with student committees in co-ordinating such activities as the Student Artist Series. The daily operation of the Union, Union policies, budgeting, purchasing, planning and other auxiliary functions were just a few of the responsibilities which these directors undertook in order to provide the students of Florida State with a successful year of activities.

Union Board and Program Council

The Florida State University Union is governed by the University Union Board. The Board consists of eight student members and five non-student members. The Union provided a cultural, social and recreational program for the students again this year. The Board promoted the use of the Union facilities for the benefit of the student body and negotiated with the Union management in regard to student wishes on the operation of the Union.

The Program Council is a set of committees developed to organize and conduct activities of the Union Board. They sponsored such events as the annual Activities Night, the Miss University Union Contest, the weekly film series and a series of lectures and exhibits.

State Stymied

Again by Houston

Houston, sparked by three long touchdowns, sped to a 21-13 victory over Florida State in the opening tilt of 1966, despite a spirited scoring by the Tribe in the closing moments. The Cougars thus extended their mastery of the Seminoles and snapped FSU's unbeaten string at home, which dated back to 1963. Despite the final score, the Seminoles dominated the game, netting 20 first downs to Houston's seven. A fumble on the Cougars' three-yard line and a nullified TD toss to Ron Sellers cost the Tribe two bombs thrown by Burris, one of 80 yards to speedy Warren McVea.

Beginning what was billed as a rebuilding year, the young Seminole squad looked sharp on both offense and defense and gave promise of an exciting season.

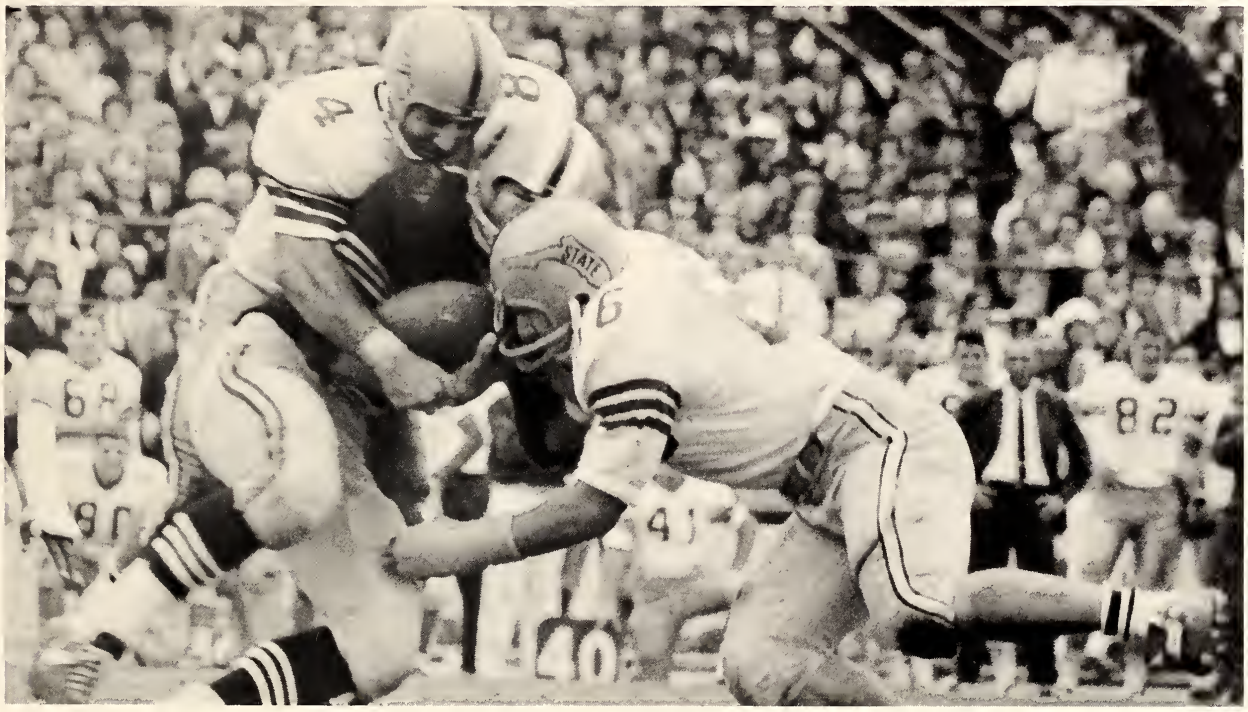
Tribe Harnesses Miami's Hurricanes



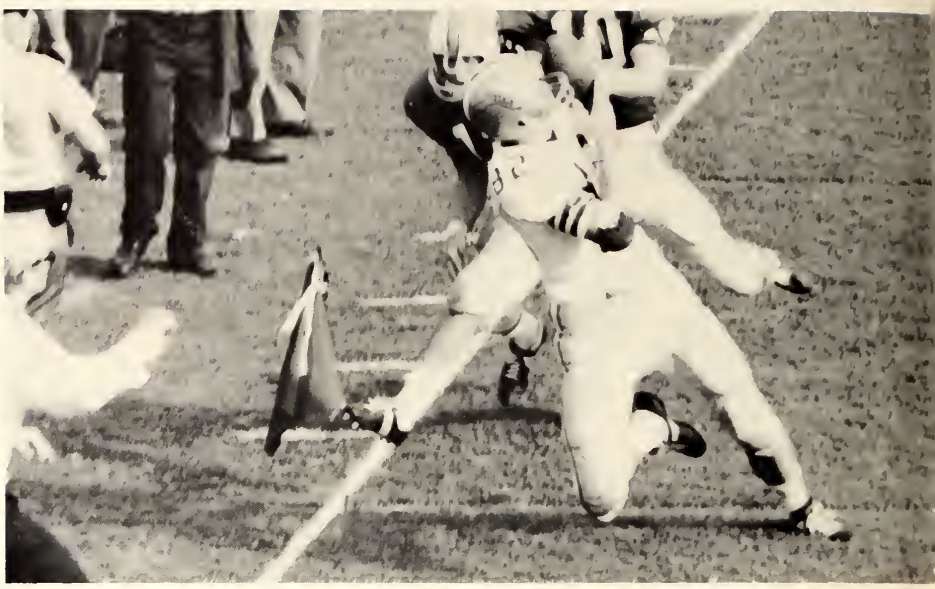
KISSAM BLOCKS AND PAJCIC MAKES THE PASS

The Seminoles journeyed to Miami to take on the highly-touted Hurricanes. They emerged from the scuffle proving what people had suspected: the Tribe was a team to be reckoned with.

Florida State put on a great offensive show featuring the clutch passing of Gary Pajcic and touchdown catches by Jim Mankins and Thurston Taylor, and quelled the Hurricanes 23-20. But in the end, it was the alert Seminole defense, snaring five enemy passes, which maintained the margin of victory.

Trialing 23-20 late in the fourth quarter, Miami drove deep into Florida State territory. With the Hurricanes three yards from paydirt, Dave Braggins forced Miami's fullback McGee to fumble, allowing the Tribe offense to take over and run out the clock.

Gators Gigged Again



LANE FENNER SCORES THE WINNING TD TO "GIG THE GATORS" 25–23

With 17 seconds remaining in the game and Florida State trailing by three points, Lane Fenner took a 45–yard touchdown pass from Gary Pajcic to give FSU a 25–22 win over Florida's mighty Gators.

A record crowd of nearly 48,000 packed Campbell stadium to witness a game that will be talked about as long as the two schools play football. The spirited contest featured a great aerial battle between Seminole Gary Pajcic and Heismann Trophy winner Steve Spurrier. Big Jim Mankins cracked over for FSU's first two touchdowns, and Pete Roberts added two field goals and an extra point. Spurrier connected on three scoring tosses for the Gators. Halfback Larry Smith took Spurrier's last payoff pitch late in the game to put Florida back in the lead and set the stage for the heroics of Pajcic and Fenner.

THE REFEREE CALLS ANOTHER T.D. FOR FSU

Florida State and Texas Tech unleashed their offensive guns at each other and staged a highscoring battle before 28,000 thrilled spectators in a night game at Lubbock, Texas. When the fireworks were over, the Tribe had trounced the Red Raiders 42-33, and a host of offensive records for both schools had fallen by the wayside.

Jim Mankins, the hard-running Seminole fullback, played his greatest game, scoring four touchdowns and gaining 111 yards on the ground. Scoring passes of 58 yards from Pajcic to Green and 52 yards from Hammond to Sellers accounted for the other two FSU scores. Roberts split the uprights after each TD.

Both teams amassed over 500 yards in total offense, the Red Raiders being sparked by the running and passing of quarterback John Scovell. The accurate arm of Gary Pajcic placed the Seminoles among the top five teams in the nation in passing.

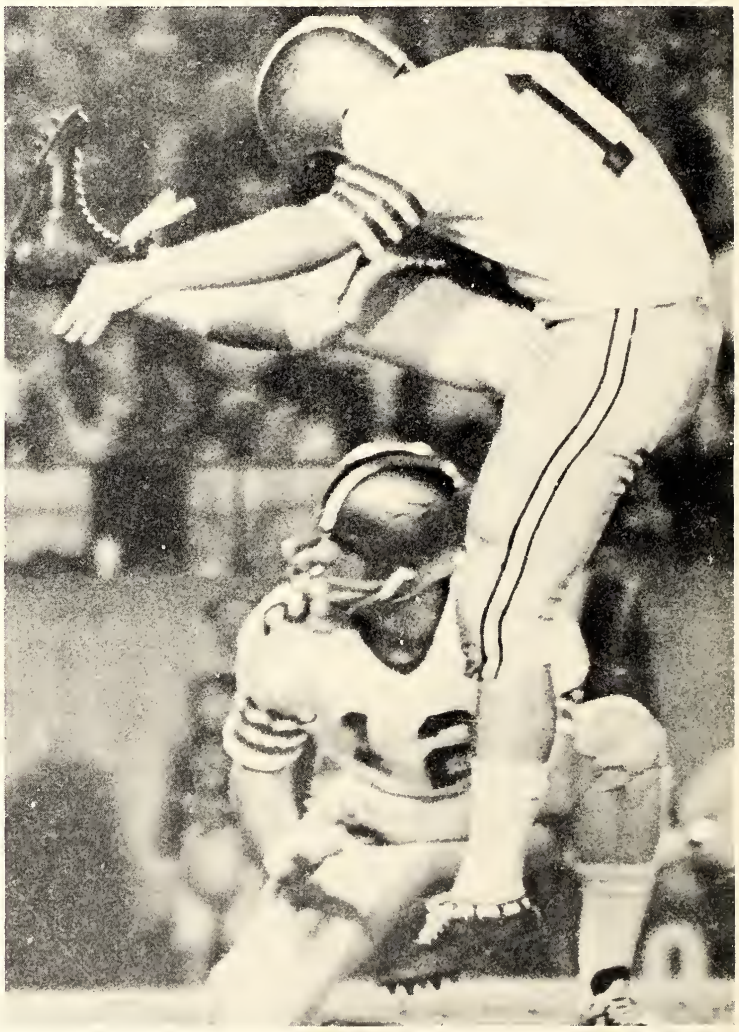
Tribe Bumps-Off Bulldogs

A savage Seminole defense, spearheaded by linebacker Mike Blatt, shut out Mississippi State and paved the way for a 10-0 Florida State triumph October 22 under the lights at Campbell Stadium.

The Tribe throttled the Bulldogs' dangerous Marcus Rhoden and held the determined but outclassed Mississippi to a minus yardage total on the ground. Midway through the second quarter, Blatt set up the first Seminole score when he tackled Bulldog Quarterback Don Saget, jarring loose the pigskin for a later Gary Pajcic cracked over from the one for his and later added a 25-yard field goal to round out the scoring. The passing of Pajcic and strong running of Jim Mankins enabled Florida State to control the ball most of the game.



PETE ROBERTS ADDS THE EXTRA POINT FOR FLORIDA STATE

V.P.I. HAS RUSHING LINEMEN, GREAT STRATEGY

V.P.I. Defeats Seminoles

Playing before a large TV audience on ABC, Florida State encountered an old nemesis in Virginia Tech. Before a partisan crowd in Blacksburg, the Seminoles were unable to shake a jinx that has long riddled opponents at Gobbler homecomings.

The Tribe started slowly as VPI's Mooney broke through to spill Hammond in his own end zone for a safety. A Stafford-to-Barefoot TD toss gave the Hokies a 9-0 lead at the half. Bill Moreman put the Seminoles in the lead with two scores early in the third quarter. Then lightning struck. Gobbler Frank Loria sped 75 yards to paydirt on a punt return. VPI recovered an onside kickoff, and several plays later, Stafford spotted Franciscus and connected for the score, giving VPI a 9-point bulge. FSU roared back with Moreman blasting six yards for his third TD. A fourth-down bid by Mankins early in the final period fell inches shy of the goal line, and the Gobblers squeaked by to win 23-21.

TRIBEMAN STIFLES A TECHMAN ON A PASS PLAY

MOREMAN (30) BREAKS THROUGH FOR A BIG GAIN

Florida State turned loose Bill Moreman and Jim Mankins against South Carolina and the pair ran wild as the Seminoles spoiled the Gamecocks homecoming, 32-10. Moreman tallied three times and Mankins once as they rolled up 150 yards on the ground.

Moreman began the scoring parade with a nine-yard burst through the Gamecock line early in the first quarter. Then the Tribe offense sputtered as USC roared back for ten quick points. Moreman's second TD gave FSU a 14-10 halftime lead.

The second half was all Florida State's. The "Meeces" picked off five enemy passes and held the Gamecock's scoreless as the hard-driving Seminole offense crossed the goal line three times. The final Tribe score came on a nine-yard end sweep by flashy halfback Larry Green.

FSU STRUGGLES AGAINST THE TOP TEAM IN THE EAST

Florida State faced its biggest test of the season when it came up against a fearsome Syracuse eleven, winners of their last eight games and the Lambert trophy, symbolic of the top team in the East. The Orangemen sent a wounded Seminole squad home smarting from a 37-21 beating.

Two-time All-American Floyd Little swept into paydirt three times from 24 yards out. Little and giant 240-lb. fullback Larry Csonka ran relentlessly around and through the FSU line as Syracuse amassed 330 yards rushing on the muddy turf. Gary Pajcic, pressed by the big Orange linemen, had one pass stolen by Tony Kyasky, who returned it all the way for a touchdown.

Kim Hammond came off the bench late in the contest to spark the Tribe to its last two scores, with Larry Green and John Hurst doing the honors.

Wake Forest KO'd at Homecoming

Winning 28-0, the Tribe notched its second straight Homecoming shutout over Wake Forrest. Fifteen quarters and six years have elapsed since the frustrated Deacons last scored on the Seminoles.

A spectacular 86-yard touchdown pass from Gary Pajcic to Ron Sellers highlighted a Florida State offensive show. Bill Moreman's seventh trip across the goal line this season, a one-yard plunge, started the FSU scoring. Early in the second quarter, T. K. Wetherell returned a Deacon Punt thirty-five yards to the Wake Forrest "four." Larry Green circled left end on the next play to put the Tribe fourteen points up at the half. In the next period, Pajcic rolled out from his own "fourteen," spotted Sellers in the clear, and hit the tall flanker for a score, breaking an FSU mark set in 1950. Fullback Jim Markins powered thirteen yards for the final Seminole TD, and Frank Loner added his fourth extra point of the day to cap the scoring.

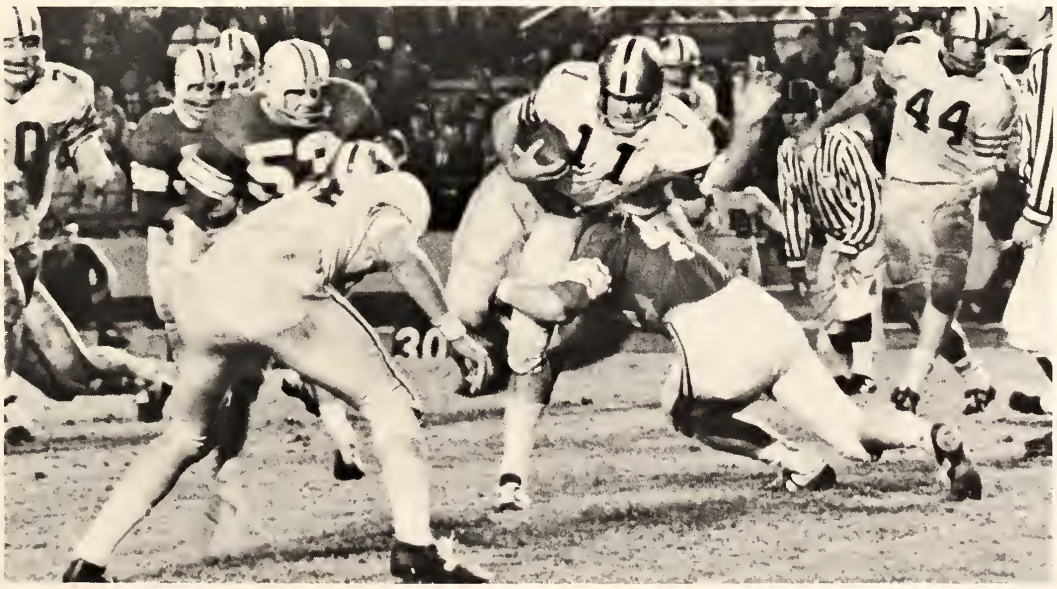
PAJCIC ON KEEPER SURGES THROUGH THE TERRAPIN LINE

Touchdowns, records, and trip to the Sun Bowl all belonged to Florida State when the Seminoles closed their regular season by pounding Maryland, 45-21. Twenty-thousand fans at Campbell Stadium watched Gary Pajcic crack Steve Tensi's 1964 records for a pass completions and total yardage. Kim Hammond was highly effective passing and running as he led the Tribe to its last four TD's.

FSU broke the game wide open in the second quarter with three quick scores on passes to Cox and Taylor and a two-yard burst by Green.

In the second half Mankins, Moreman and Hurst recorded the last three Tribe tallies as Maryland gamely fought back. Terrapin quarterback, Alan Pastrana entered the game and began to pick apart the Tribe secondary with his passes. Although Van Heusen hauled in two Pastrana scoring aerials and Myrtle one, the Seminoles, assuring themselves of a winning season, matched the Terrapins score for score and set their sights on the Wyoming Cowboys.

FSU Tumbles Terrapins



HAMMOND PROVES HIS WORTH AS A RUNNER AS HE STRUGGLES TO BREAK THROUGH

Cagers Tumble Then Rebound

A rapier-quick, sniping defense complimented the deliberate, shuffle-style Seminole cage offense to produce a respectable 11-15 season chart against stiff opposition that included Kansas, Marshall (NIT finalists), North Carolina (NCAA semi-finalist), U of F, and Georgia Tech. Tribe cagers scored victories over Tulane, Memphis State, Rice, Miami, Citadel, and others.

The unexpected passing of Head Coach Wallace "Bud" Kennedy, FSU basketball mentor for 18 successful years, left recent Tribe star Hugh Durham with the coaching reins. In an extensive attempt to vitalize the Seminole hardwood attack, Coach Durham employed certain resourceful variations of the shuffle, including a delayed-strike strategy called the "mongoose."

Bill Glenn, a 6' 5" forward with a keen scoring touch, and 6' Jeff Hogan, a deft and daring shooting guard, paced FSU's 1967 scoring efforts with 20-point averages per game. The rebounding of 6' 9" Dick Danford and the slick, ballhawking defense of Darrel Stewart, plus Ian Morrison completed the FSU starting five players.

Swimming Seminoles

Up against its toughest schedule in its history, Florida State's swimming team, coached for the 19th straight year by highly regarded Bim Stults, rose to the occasion and fashioned a 9-2 season record. The Swimming Seminoles boasted the largest tank squad in Tribe history, and lost only three seniors for the 1968 campaign.

The hard ones came first. After a tune-up win, over Georgia Tech in Atlanta, the tankers outwrestled rival Florida in the Gators' own water. Nationally ranked North Carolina came next on the Seminoles' victory list, but the North Carolina State Wolfpack ended the winning streak, taming the Tribe in Union Pool.

Bouncing back with wins over South Florida and Tulane, Florida State suffered a second heartbreaking loss when the Gators jumped on their hosts and submerged hopes for a sweep of their rivals.

The Seminoles were hampered by injuries the rest of the way, but were still strong enough to stop East Carolina, Miami, and South Florida again.

Baseball's Year

FRED HATFIELD
Coach

It was supposed to be a rebuilding year for the Florida State diamond players, but Coach Fred Hatfield's men used the foundation of a strong pitching corps and "built" themselves to their third straight bid to the NCAA District III baseball tournament at Gastonia, North Carolina.

The going was rough at first, with the strong arms of the likes of lefthander Wayne Vincent and righthander LaDon Boyd keeping the opposition in check when the Tribe bats were silent.

The hitting jelled with the pitching on a road trip between Trimesters II and III, however, and the Seminoles were on to a 14-game winning streak before Florida abruptly ended it on the Seminole diamond.

Largely on the basis of this late-season surge, the Tribe was invited to Gastonia, but the Seminoles couldn't carry over the momentum and were counted out by Auburn and Clemson. They finished the season with a 32-14 record.

Seminole cindermen experienced a sub-par 1-4 season which was, nevertheless, highlighted by numerous crack individual performances.

FSU claimed a whopping 98-47 victory over Miami for the year's only dual meet win, and dropped decisions to Auburn, Alabama, U of F, and SEC champion Tennessee. The Tribe's 77-68 hairling finish marked the Auburn competition.

Sid Gainey, 7th ranked broad jumper in the nation (24 feet, 7 inches), placed at the Penn Relays and captured several dual meet wins. High jumper Bud Manning lofted himself 6-71/2 in the air to establish a new FSU record.

Hurdlers Mike Kelly and Charlie Vickers both placed at the Penn Relays and posted new school records in the process: Kelly--120-yd. highs (14 .1); Vickers--440-yd. intermediate (52.3).

Marcus Williamson lowered the Seminole two-mile record with a 9:29.9 clocking.

Manning nearly wrote a new javelin mark by tossing the spear 220 feet, 8 inches.

Coach Lex Wood's racquet squad, fortified by a dozen able strokemakers, produced a 16-7 season record from stiff intersectional opposition.

Wood's netters forged victories over Michigan State, Rollins, DePaul, Auburn, Amherst, and Alabama in attaining a season mark of notable prominence. Losses to nationally ranked teams--Miami, Mississippi State, Tennessee and others--were the only flaws in FSU's net record.

Clint Murphy and Dave Danielson paced the singles play with 15-4 personal marks, while No. 1 Paul DeZeew and No. 2 Stewart Bruner scored several triumphs with their "power game" styles. Roberto Marcher, Randy Jobson, Herb Rapp, and Al Procopio contributed to the successful season.

FSU golfers compiled an 8-1 match record for 1967, marred only by a 12 1/2-5 1/2 road loss to U of F. The Seminole linksters subsequently avenges the Gator trimming by stroking a 13-5 victory on the home course. Links victims included Florida, Alabama, Auburn (twice), and Rollins.

Hubert Green, Southern Amateur champ from Birmingham, paced the squad along with Carl DiCesare Ron Philo and Jim Conace.

Coach Keith Pitchford's team earned second place in the State tournament and swept a 30-stroke team victory in the Buckhaults Invitational at Mobile. DiCesare lopped 17 strokes from par, while Green chopped 12, in this key southern tourney.

AT TIMES IT'S A LITTLE ROUGH ON HEADS

FSU's young Soccer Club displayed its proudest record in 1966-67 by capturing 14 victories while absorbing only two losses and four ties.

Defeating many opponents of intercollegiate status, including a 9-0 thrashing of the U of F, Seminole booters posted an average of 6.5 goals per game and allowed a mere 2.8 per contest to their foes.

Ace center forward Ray Enyoong paced individual scoring with 21 goals, while front liner Rado Pribic kicked 18 scoring drives.

Defense was attributable to leaping goalkeeper Jim Silverwood and sturdy fullback Doug Padgett.

Wrestling Takes Second in State

Second place in the Florida Intercollegiate Wrestling Tournament highlighted grappling action for FSU, as Tribe competitors downed U of F and Miami at the concluding tourney. Coach Joe Semas and Chuck Almeida captured individual titles at the meet, while Gene Opheim earned a runner-up spot.

The FSU Wrestling Club posted a 4-5 record during the regular season, which included double wins over U of F and St. Johns J.C., counterbalanced by double losses to powerful Miami Dade J.C. and Troy State. The additional loss was administered to the team by Tampa's Spartans in Tampa.

FSU SAILORS LEAD BY CHARGING TOWARD A WIN

A coveted invitation to the John F. Kennedy Regatta in Annapolis climaxed another successful year for the FSU Sailing Club, in which the Seminole skippers handily defeated many southern opponents, including University of Florida, Tulane, Georgia Tech, and Vanderbilt.

However, for the first time in three years, FSU lost to Tulane in the Southeastern Intercollegiate (SEISA) championship run.

Al Franklin commodored the Seminole team during Trimester I, when his team earned the SEISA Sloop title and the Vanderbilt Invitational crown. Hugh Duval took the helm during Trimester II, when FSU bested six teams in the Lake Bradford Invitational.

Because of its accomplishments in recognizing and encouraging high academic achievement in the arts and sciences, Phi Beta Kappa has long been a revered tradition of college life. The Alpha of Florida Chapter of PBK was chartered in 1935 at The Florida State College for Women.

The Florida State chapter annually holds a Founder's Day Meeting in commemoration of its establishment as the first Greek letter fraternity in 1776. The Alpha Chapter also sponsors the Visiting Scholars Program, in which a noted scholar from another institution holds a series of lectures which the public may attend.

Phi Kappa Phi is a scholastic honorary which is distinguished by its selection of members from all departments and schools of the university. Included in its membership are students on both the graduate and undergraduate levels who meet the necessary requirements. A 3.2 overall average is the minimum scholastic requirement for undergraduates, while a 3.75 is required as a minimum at the graduate level. Established at Florida State in 1925, Phi Kappa Phi strives to promote the highest standards in scholastic achievement and individual character and endeavors to recognize such outstanding traits in students by awarding them membership.

The highest men's leadership honorary on campus, Omicron Delta Kappa, recognizes those who have made outstanding accomplishments in their college activities. Drawn from the junior and senior men as well as from the faculty and administration, members are chosen on the basis of their character, leadership, service to the university, and consecration to democratic ideals.

In order to qualify for membership, one must have attained excellence in at least two of the areas of scholarship, political affairs, religious affairs, athletics and the dramatic arts.

Mortar Board

JO ANN SNYDER
President

Being tapped for Mortar Board, national honorary for women, is the perfect climax for the coed who has excelled in all phases of campus life. Developing a finer type of college woman has always been one of Mortar Board's primary goals. Mortar Board achieves this purpose through the examples of its members, who must promote college loyalty by their own spirit of service and leadership among university women.

Mortar Board sponsors many activities on campus, including the Last Lecture Series and Penny-A-Minute Night.

Gold Key

Gold Key was founded on the Florida State campus in 1947 to recognize and foster leadership and service of outstanding junior and senior men. New members are selected twice each year on the basis of their leadership, scholarship, and service to Florida State University. Many of Gold Key's activities extend beyond the boundaries of the FSU campus.

This year Gold Key contributed to several service projects in the Tallahassee area. The main social event of the year was the annual Garnet and Gold Homecoming Banquet, co-sponsored by Garnet and Gold Key.

Garnet Key

Garnet Key taps women from the sophomore, junior and senior classes for their outstanding contributions to FSU through leadership, service, and spirit. Organized in 1947 as a local honorary, Garnet Key promotes those activities which foster progress and spirit of the University. Its members have also attained a minimum of scholastic average of 2.3.

This year members of Garnet Key helped with the planning of Homecoming and Circus Weekends.

Student Nurses Association

The motto of the Student Nurses Association is, "to serve humanity with kindness and understanding," and it is this that guided the organization's aim to prepare the student nurses for their assumption of professional responsibilities. They were quite active this year with such projects as an annual Christmas Party at W.T. Edwards Hospital, bringing newspapers to the infirmary and providing for a Thanksgiving basket of food to a needy family.

Meetings were made interesting by various guest speakers, such as the Director of Nurses from Tallahassee Hospital, as well as lecturers from the Public Health Department and the Program of Different Fields of Nursing. They also had their annual Tri-Service Program, which brought in speakers from the various armed services. For the coming year, they have arranged to have a Big-Little Sister program, and for a state convention to Miami, which five FSU delegates have planned to attend.

The Baptist Student Union tries to keep students in contact with the church and its activities during their university days. The group held weekly vespers, participated in intramurals, and presented guest speakers. One of their main projects was supporting an orphan child overseas.

This year BSU won first place in the off-campus housing Circus decorations and second place in the Campus Sing. The organization entertained its members with fall and winter retreats featuring dialogue groups at the reservation and a hayride. The meetings were enhanced by the presence of speakers such as Dr. Spivey of Brazil.

PHI MU EPSILON OFFICERS: William Reynolds, Vice-President; Ross Urso, President; Beverly Wallich, Secretary.

Phi Mu Epsilon is an honorary fraternity which promotes scholarly activity in the field of mathematics. Meetings, held monthly, were dedicated to discussions and exposition problems of certain mathematical concepts. The Florida State chapter was installed in 1956.

Officers for the mathematicians were Ross Urso, President; William Reynolds, Vice-President; and Beverly Wallich, Secretary. The advisor for this year was Dr. J.L. Mott.

Alpha Lambda Delta

Alpha Lambda Delta is a national scholastic honorary for freshmen women who have attained a 3.5 overall during their first year of college. Celebrating its 25th year at FSU, Alpha Lamb promoted intellectual living and a high standard of scholarship as its ideals.

Members were active in sponsoring a scholarship which was given to a student in need of financial aid and in hostessing the Honor's Night reception for freshmen students.

Led by President, Sandy Miley, Alpha Lambda Delta encouraged superior scholastic achievement among the freshmen of Florida State.

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA MEMBERS: Ann Schiavone, Historian; Sandy Miley, President; Louise Kleffner, Tanya Connar, Leslie Saxon, Jeanne Dammas, Kathryn Karran, Toni Scalera, Carol Kellum .

Foundation Scholarship Organization

FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP ORGANIZATION OFFICERS: Joe Warren, President; Connie Brown, Secretary; Donna Stover, Treasurer; Gordon Hood, Vice-President.

Founded at the Florida State University in 1948, the Foundation Scholarship Organization consists of students who have received scholarships from the Southern Scholarship and Research Foundation. These students have won grants from the Foundation on the basis of their achievement in their studies and their contributions to the community. Every year the various off-campus scholarship houses sponsor an Honors Convocation at which students are recognized for their academic achievements. The house which has attained the highest scholastic average is awarded a trophy.

Mortified

Under the auspices of the Grand Czar, Mortified exists for the sole purpose of fun and spirit raising. The group never meets except by accident and members devote as much time to harassing Mortar Board members as they do to activities.

Mortified taps one less member than its rival organization, Mortar Board. The taps must be of junior standing and must have contributed to FSU through leadership, spirit, character, and service. A high scholastic average is not required, thus the origin of the distinguished pink and green dunce cap pin. However, every member of Mortified has achieved honors at Florida State.

Society for the Advancement of Management

Florida State's Chapter of the Society for the Advancement of Management was officially founded in 1946. Working along with the National Chapter, the Society promotes the study of the scientific principles of modern management.

This year, field trips were held for advancing management techniques. Included was a trip to Atlanta, Georgia.

In an effort to offer an interesting and educational program to their members, the Society for the Advancement of Management entertained several guest speakers at their meetings.

Sigma Alpha Eta

Promoting interest and providing academic enrichment in the field of speech and hearing therapy has been the primary goal of Sigma Alpha Eta at FSU in the past years.

In attaining these goals they sponsored programs related to speech and audiology for the members. They distributed the Florida Speech and Hearing Association Bulletin to therapists in the state. The members made visits to various civic clubs and described the work of the Florida State University clinic. This year Melissa McDonald was President.

Phi Chi Theta

Phi Chi Theta is the National Fraternity for Women in Business and Economics. High ideals are promoted for women in business careers and higher business education and training is fostered.

Each year the members are hosts for the School of Business Faculty-Student Reception and the professional meeting with Delta Sigma Pi. Other undertakings this year were action as librarians for the School of Business, awarding a scholarship key to the outstanding senior girl in business, and fund-raising projects for National Scholarships Awards. Carol Boggs received the $500 award.

THE MADRIGAL DINNER WAS DECORATED BY ART MEMBERS

Student Art Education Association strives to help the student become fully aware of the duties of an art educator and to familiarize him with other art organizations in Florida and throughout the nation.

This year the Association set up art displays at various locations on campus, held their annual Spring Design Show, and decorated for the Madrigal Dinner.

Officers for the year were Neena Smirch, President; Patsy Rains, Vice-President; Mary Blay, Secretary, and Dr. Ivan Johnson, Advisor.

Fashion Incorporated

Fashion Incorporated is a noncommercial association of college women interested in fashion study and work, formed to foster better taste and keener interest in fashion. Each year the group sponsors a fall fashion show for freshmen and transfer students, a "Fashion Guide" booklet, and a spring Fashion Day featuring guest speakers from all over the United States. It also sponsors a Modeling Board to represent FSU.

Freshman Flunkies

Acting as a service organization of the University, Freshman Flunkies brought freshmen women into FSU activities through the various dorms. Membership was granted to any freshman woman who completed three or more hours of service.

Their activities included working at the University Hospital, helping at the polls for the fall election and helping advertise for the Student Entertainment Series. Also the FF's acted as hostesses for the annual Alumni Open House and handled the addressing and mailing of various literature throughout the year.

FRESHMAN FLUNKIES DORM CHAIRMEN: Karen Carlett, JoAnn Partridge, Beverly Chin, Gwen Yount, Sharon Butler.

Alpha Phi Omega

Each year Alpha Phi Omega searches the campus for the men of integrity, who are willing to devote time and energy to the chapter, the campus, to the community, and to the nation. Iota Rho chapter of Alpha Phi Omega is a national service fraternity. The chapter was established on the Florida State campus in April of 1951.

The purpose of Alpha Phi Omega is to unite college men in a fraternity under the principals of leadership, friendship, and service. The members work to meet these requirements by sponsoring the annual FSU White Christmas, helping Boy Scouts in the area, by sponsoring the Ugly Man contest to raise money for scholarships, and the Charity Bowl football game between the Greeks and Independents. As a service to FSU students, they provide the Travel Bureau and the Student Directory.

PAT LEPAIGE
President

One of thirty-five active undergraduate chapters in the nation, FSU's chapter of Gamma Sigma Sigma continued this past year to promote the spirit of service to the campus, community and nation. The members acted as official hostesses of the University Union, ushered at campus movies, assisted in the infirmary and performed the helpful service of baby-sitting for children of the faculty and married students.

To serve those outside of the campus community, Gamma Sigma Sigma collected for the local March of dimes and United Fund projects. They also directed the "Candy for Viet Nam" drive to raise funds for the United States effort there.

Sophomore Council, a women's service organization, was one of the first groups of campus met by incoming freshmen students. Dressed in blue and white, the girls were on hand the first day of orientation to welcome the newcomers by helping with luggage and serenading freshman dorms later that evening. Sophomore Council members also assisted during pre-class testing. For the remainder of the year, it was the responsibility of the council to keep all campus bulletin boards up to date.

Women were selected for Sophomore Council the preceeding spring by fellow freshman girls and dorm and junior counselors on the basis of grades, service, cooperation, and participation on the FSU campus during their freshman year. The organization was connected with and directly responsible to the Women's Senate.

Social Welfare Club

Social Welfare, during the 1966-67 year, was both academically and socially oriented. Academically, the club members worked with improving the relations between the students and faculty. Socially, the organization offered opportunities for more training to those who were interested in the field of social welfare.

Projects of the Social Welfare Club included a Korean Book Drive and the sponsoring of speakers from social agencies to provide programs of interest for club members. Officers for the year were Theresa Maxwell, President; Claudia Allen, Vice-President; and Linda Hughs, Treasurer.

SOCIAL WELFARE CLUB OFFICERS: Daniel Roth, Treasurer; Nancy Germani, Secretary; Jill Ford, Vice-President; Theresa Maxwell, President; Dr. Sielski, Advisor.

Village Vamps

Village Vamps has been the official organization of campus hostesses since its founding under FSCW. The members welcome visiting groups, usher for Student Artist Series and other cultural events on campus. This year they served as hostesses for coffees and receptions, and ushered at the Governor's Inagural Ball.

Freshman and transfer coeds were tapped after a two-day rush in the fall. The "tapps" were easily recognized on campus, for they wore black dresses and a large white heart to signify their selection.

Town Girls was organized as an aid to FSU girls who did not like on-campus housing this year. To help them feel more a part of the school, the Town Girls organization began such projects as "get acquainted" teas and covered dish suppers. To show their interest in FSU, these girls participated in numerous service projects which included selling programs at the Florida State Circus.

Leading the Town Girls Association this past year were Sandi Linton, President; Celeste Scales, Vice-President; Julie Weeks, Secretary; and Linda Defina, Treasurer. Mrs. Sherrill W. Ragans, Asst. Dean of Women, served as Advisor.

Home Economics Club was one of the most active during the past year. Through its varied functions it strived to provide and promote the professional development of the students in home economics and, at the same time, to foster effective and workable student-faculty relationships.

The club was strictly a professional organization, and the program each month emphasized a different phase of the field. The other activities included the annual student-faculty picnic and the Honor's Night Initiation, both held in the Fall. With the Spring came the annual School of Home Economics Banquet.

Angel Flight

An eye-appealing addition to the AFROTC program on campus was Angel Flight, a women's organization designed to advance and promote interest in the Air Force. The Angels served as hostesses at several University events and Air Force activities sponsored by the Arnold Air Society. The Sarasota "King Neptune" Parade along with the Mardi Gras Parade was graced by these girls executing precision drills. In addition, Angels sponsored and produced "Folk Frolics," a folksinging festival in the spring featuring local talent.

Since their origin in 1952, these girls have become a welcome and integral part of over 120 universities throughout the United States.

ANGEL FLIGHT OFFICERS: Susan Macchi, Operation Officer; Jan Siewert, Executive Officer; Sheri McTahey, Administration Services; Anna Marie LaChance, Commander; Julie Olsen, Information Services; Margaret Hampton, Laison, Babs Shoemaker, Historian; Laura Newton, Information Services.

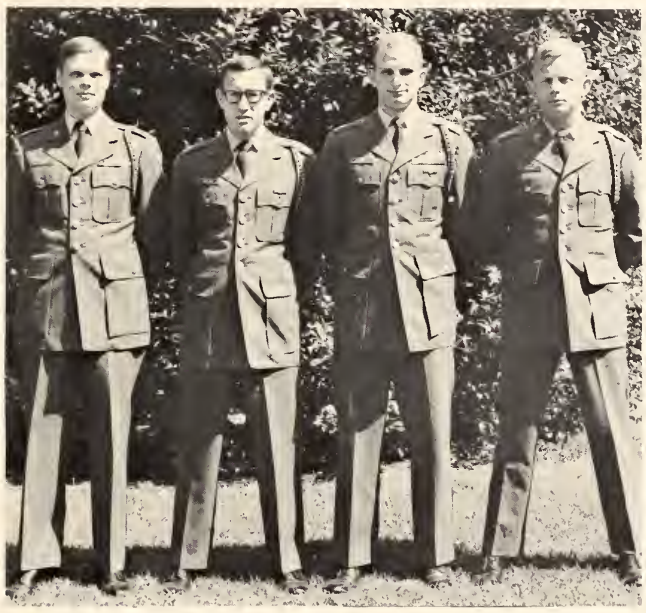
Arnold Air Society



ARNOLD AIR SOCIETY: Don Dorr, Jack Wallace, Richard Hale, Dave Larson.

Arnold Air Society, a professional Honorary service fraternity of selected Air Force ROTC cadets, is one of the more active service organizations on campus.

The Air Society is designed to promote aerospace citizenship, to advance the support of air power, and to create a closer and more efficient relationship with the Air Force ROTC

This year the Air Force cadets provided escorts for the homecoming Honor Class, sponsored their annual blood drive, and held the gala Military Ball as well as sponsoring the Civil Air Patrol and producing an outstanding drill team.

Student National Education Association

The Student National Education Association provides opportunities for training in professional leadership for any student entering the education field. Members were active throughout the year in serving Florida State and through their association with the FSU School of Education they were able to accomplish their goals of leadership and capability in preparing to become future teachers in communities throughout the United States.

Gymnastica is a local honorary which was formed by gymnasts of the National Team Championship in 1951. Since that time, pledges have been selected on the basis of their skill and service with gymnastics and Gymkana. To promote a fraternal spirit among the members, they provide a social both before and after the gymkana show every year. Aided by Dr. Hartley Price, their advisor, the group learns to promote an interest in gymnastics and pageantry.

Phi Epsilon Kappa fosters scientific research in health, physical education and recreation, and endeavors to further the individual welfare of each member.

Under the leadership of their President, James Jarrett, the men of Phi Epsilon Kappa sponsored an annual Christmas basket which was given to a needy family in the Tallahassee area. They also sponsored picnics and luncheons for the members, their families, and the Physical Education Staff. Phi Epsilon Kappa was founded at FSU in 1958.

Granberry, Advisor; Mary Thiel.

An organization to assist the Women's Recreation Association, Women's F Club spent the past year promoting university spirit and awarding the "F" for outstanding athletic achievement. Girls tapped for membership in this organization were required to have had a 2.0 overall average and to have accumulated a minimum of two all-star awards in the women's intramural program.

"F" Club's activities this year included selling concessions at Circus, decorating the queen's float and the main gate for Homecoming, and ushering at the Tarpon Show during Circus Weekend.

Racquettes

Racquetts provides opportunities for highly skilled women tennis players to compete among themselves and against other university and college women. They sponsor throughout the year intercollegiate tennis matches and an annual invitational tournament that attracted this year twenty universities and colleges throughout the Southeast. During the past six years the Racquettes have not had a losing season. They also are proud of twelve wins and only one loss against the University of Florida. This year the Racquettes worked under the leadership of President Lynne Chalmers.

Women's Physical Education Association

The Women's Physical Education Association provided opportunities for the professional growth of women physical education majors. It also provided them with a chance to become acquainted with fellow majors. All PE majors were eligible for tapping.

One activity this year was selling uniforms and locker rental cards in Montgomery and Tully Gyms at the beginning of each trimester. As another project, they sold chrysanthemums at Homecoming for the Katherine Montgomery Scholarship Fund.

To get the freshman acquainted they had a cookout and Sports Day at the beginning of the year. One of their final events was a Sports Day between the Men and Women's PE Association.

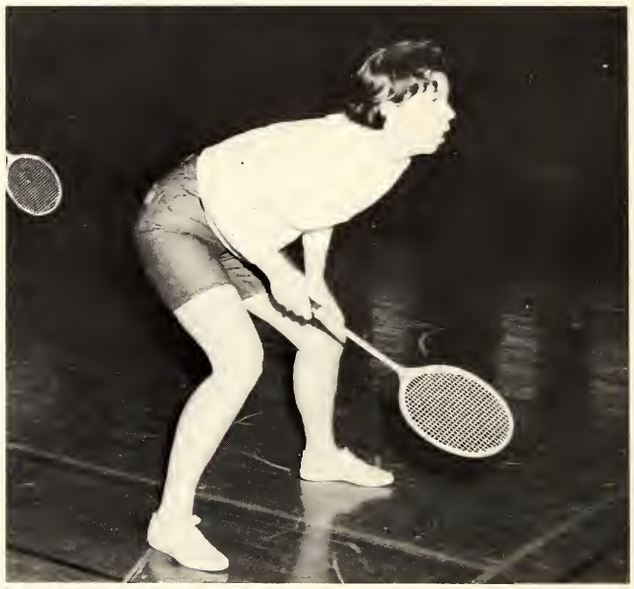
Women's Recreation Association

The Women's Recreation Association initiated and sponsored athletic activities for the female students of Florida State. The sports that were included in the 1966-67 year were track and field events along with softball, badminton along with tennis, volleyball with basketball, and bowling with archery. The sports were played among the girls themselves or against the male recreation association.

The officers for this year were Anne Moose, President; Sue Hoffman, Vice-President; Marcelle Wise, Treasurer; Tara Wentworth, Historian; and Linda Oliver, Secretary.



Tarpon Club

Synchronized aquatic artists, not just swimmers took part in Tarpon. Girls showing the most skill and poise were tapped into the organizations to then assist in producing the annual Tarpon Home Show. The Spring spectacle was centered on a theme around which the club members composed the acts.

This year Tarpon attended the Academy of Aquatic Art and the Southeastern Aquatic Art Festival. They held road shows in different parts of Florida for the entertainment of various community groups.

Tarpon was led this year by Mary Gerding, President; Alicia Crews, Vice-President; Linnea Nelson, Treasurer; and Judy Stoltz, Secretary.

Sigma Alpha Iota

The Beta Alpha chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota was organized at Florida State University in 1947 in order to raise the standards of productive musical work among the women students.

As annual projects, SAI sponsored Campus Sing and a tea for all freshman and transfer students in music. Members ushered at concerts on campus and at receptions given for prominent musicians visiting Florida State.

This year there was a membership of 44 women led by President, Joan Stadskler.

Since 1957, the Men's Physical Education Major's Association strived to awaken a wide and intelligent interest in health, physical education, and recreation, and to advance the standards of modern methods of teaching and leadership in these fields. The club is affiliated with the American Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Activities included giving food baskets to some needy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas this year. The meetings were made interesting with invited speakers, as well as sports activities. The club also sponsored a scholarship given to an outstanding junior to cover his tuition for one year.

University Singers

University Singers was organized in 1946 under the direction of Dr. Wiley Housewright, who is now the Dean of the School of Music. The organization remains open today to give any qualified member of the university community an opportunity to explore new dimensions of music.

This year the University Singers participated in multi-group programs, toured the South as represenatives of Florida State University, and presented their annual Christmas and Spring concerts.

Officers of the organization this year were Bob Yerkes, President; Ralph Rittenhouse, Vice-President; and Cynthia Carter, Secretary. Mr. Walter James served as the Director.

UNIVERSITY SINGERS OFFICERS: Ralph Rittenhouse, Vice-President; Carol Sackett, Librarian; Cynthia Carter, Secrteary; Bob Yerkes, President.

Women's Glee Club

Women's Glee Club is open to all women students who are interested and have the ability to sing. This year Women's Glee presented the "Christmas Vespers" Service and were also active in presenting their annual "Spring Concert."

The members of the club need not be in the School of Music, but are welcome from all branches of the University. The quality of their performances is indicative of the time with which they commit to this activity.

WOMEN'S GLEE CLUB OFFICERS: Becky McLeod, Vice-President; Terri LePrince, Secretary; Kathy Lewis, President; Susan McCall, Treasurer.

Phi Mu Alpha

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia fraternity's purpose was to advance the cause of music in America and to foster the mutual welfare and brotherhood of students in music.

In achieving their prupose on the Florida State campus they co-sponsored Campus Sing with Sigma Alpha Eta in February, sponsored coffee concerts on campus, gave serenades and presented the American Composers Concert. This year under the leadership of their President Cliff Colnot, the fraternity won the Regional Award for having the best chapter in the Southeastern United States.

PHI MU ALPHA OFFICERS: Cliff Colnot, President; Charles Dodgen, Vice-President; Ron Mattern, Secretary; Russ Eckert, Treasurer; Roger Beaman, Executive Alumni Secretary; Jim Jenkins, Warden; Ted Johnson, Historian.

Beta Alpha Psi

Beta Alpha Psi, an outgrowth of an early accounting club, Beta Alpha Chi, petitioned for membership when Florida State University became a member of the National Association of Collegiate Schools of Business. The fraternity obtained its charter in 1962 and since then over 200 members have been initiated.

Beta Alpha Psi promoted the collegiate study of accounting, instilled in their members the desire for self-improvement, and gave recognition to scholastic and professional excellance. This year they held the Accounting Careers Day and were co-sponsors of the management Advisory Services Conference. They also sponsored an "Honor Day" which was held at the end of the year.

BETA ALPHA PSI OFFICERS: David Knight, President; Bruce Teeters, Vice-President.

OFFICERS: Paul Daly, Secretary-Treasurer; William Wagner, President; Barbara Orwig, Vice-President; Kenneth Sussman, Vice-President; Ashby Stiff, Jr., Faculty Advisor.

Society of Hosts is a socially oriented professional organization of students majoring in hotel and restaurant management. Last year's membership included some 500 alumni members who acted as hosting industries executives in 37 states and 11 foreign countries, as well as a large undergraduate body. Founded in 1950, the Hosts' honorary members include three FSU presidents and three Governors of the State of Florida. As for activities, the group had biweekly meetings at a downtown hotel, featuring prominent guest speakers followed by a social hour. The organization also participated in a number of annual dinners and banquets, including the celebrated Beach Buffet at the Coast in Spring.

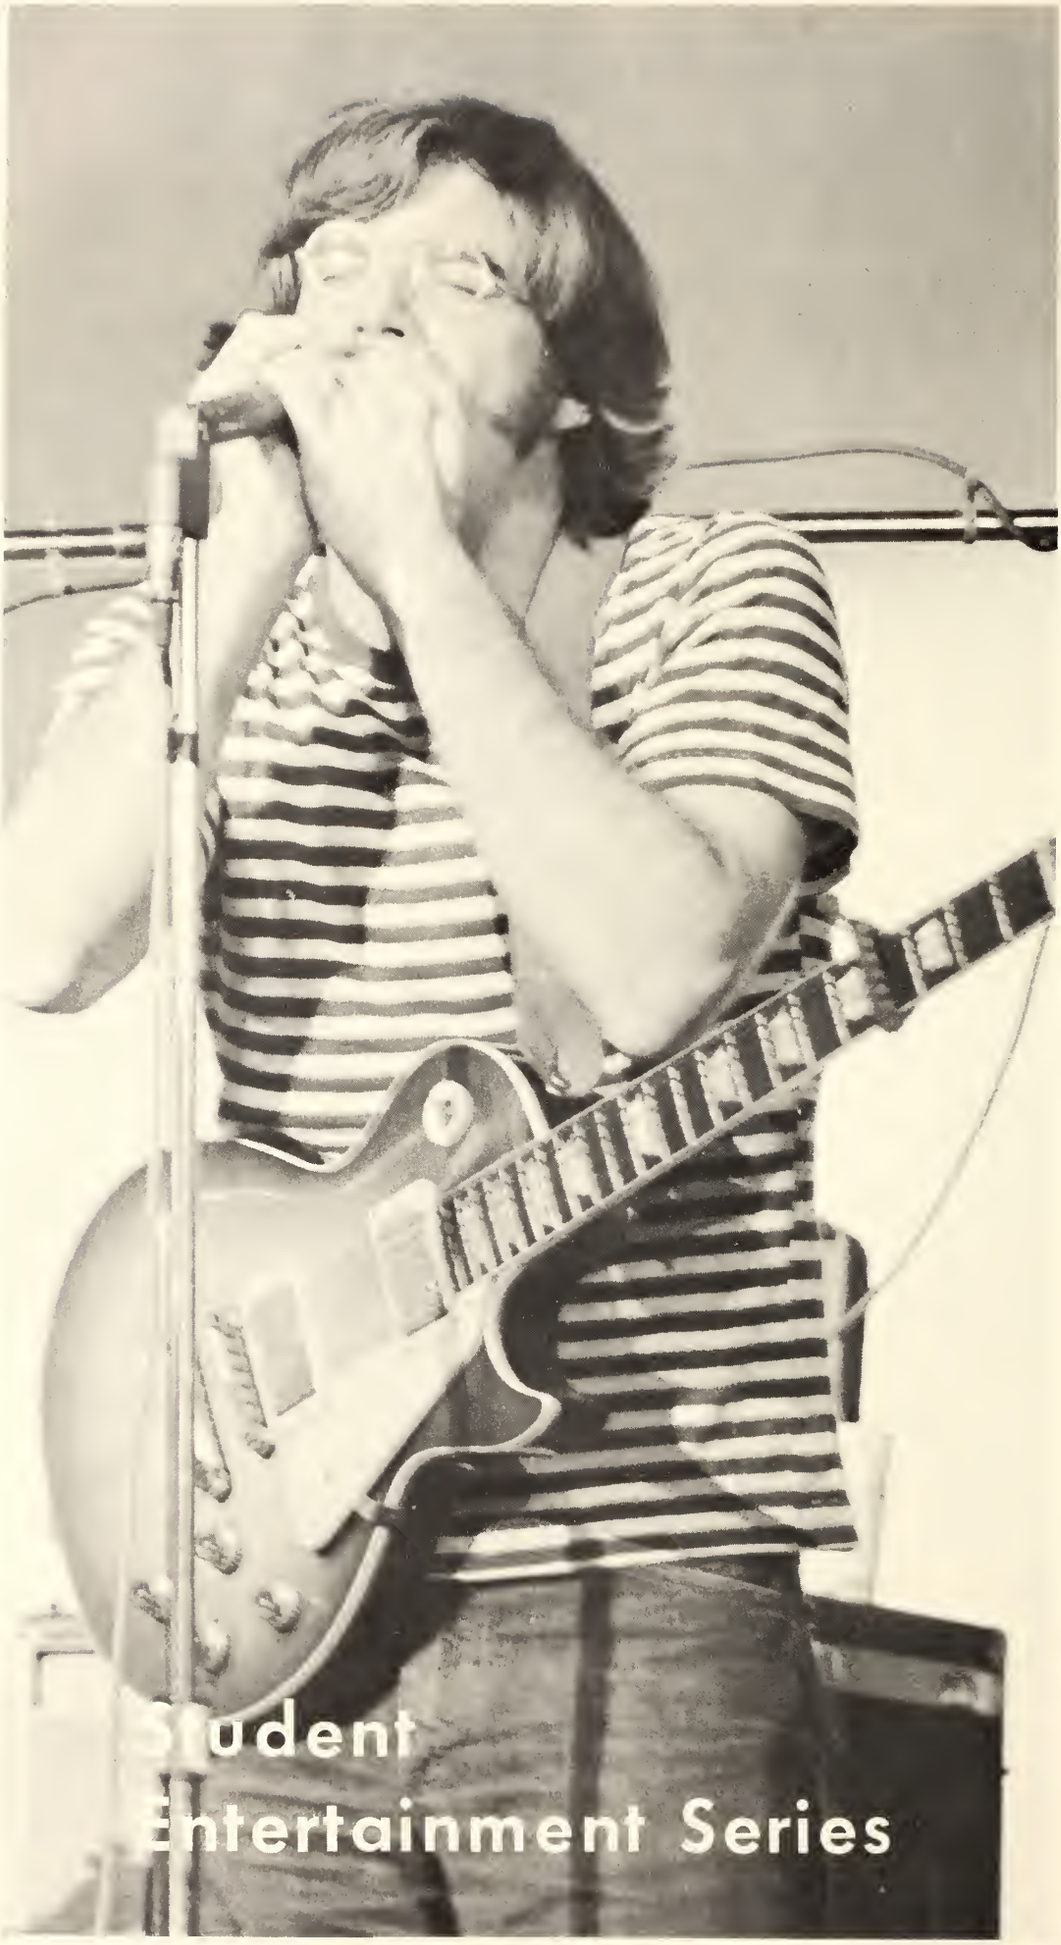
Fine Arts



Student
Entertainment Series

The Beach Boys
September 29

The premier performance of the Student Entertainment Series 66-67 got off to a rocking start with the surfing sounds of the Beach Boys. Playing to a capacity crowd in Tully Gym, the group captured the students' enthusiasm with their informal manner and musical virtuosity, and showed they were equally at home with the Big Beat sound as well as their own special brand of ballad. While the performance as a whole was filled with some wild surprises, the evening's entertainment was satisfying and, for all who attended, quite unforgettable.

The Mitchell Trio
October 27

Always popular on college campuses throughout the country, the new Mitchell Trio came to FSU in October and showed the student body the reason for their success. Their songs of society and politics, often filled with biting satire, kept the audience in constant laughter. But it was their ballads of life and love that showed the breadth of their tallent and musical skill. In all, the comedy and the beauty of the group's performance combined to give the students a well-enjoyed evening.

The Lovin' Spoonfuls

October 22

Rhythm and blues, soul jazz and folk-rock invaded the campus in the person of The Lovin' Spoonfuls in late October. The colorful group, which had been in existence for only two years, had already hit the top of the recording field with such songs as "Do You Believe In Magic?" and the more recent "Summer in the City." The unique sound of the electric autoharp, kept the spirit of the concert charged with excitement, and provided a stirring prelude to our win over Mississippi State. Accompanying The Spoonfuls were the Sopwith Camels, whose cool sounds added to the evening's entertainment.

The Lettermen

November 18

By far one of the biggest highlights of Homecoming Weekend was the performance of The Lettermen before a packed crowd in Tully Gym. Those familiar with their albums knew how well they sing, but even the best records gave no idea of the group's terrific stage presence and ability as showmen. Moving from their traditional ballads through all areas of rock and roll, folk and show tunes, the trio kept up a lively, spontaneous tempo that lasted until the final curtain call. The applause and enthusiasm of the audience left little doubt that The Lettermen marked the high point in the Series.

Glenn Yarbrough

April 1

Glenn Yarborough scored another success when he appeared in Tully Gym in the spring. Singing such hits as "Baby, The Rain Must Fall" and It's Gonna Be Fine," he completely won the approval of FSU students.

After finishing his interrupted college career, which consisted of classical Greek and Pre-Socratic Philosophy, he developed hopes of becoming a philosophy teacher. These ambitions were soon abandoned, and Glenn began his singing career. He started out with the Limeliters in 1959 but by the summer of 1963, he had decided it was time to move on. The rest is history. With five best selling albumns to his credit, Glenn Yarborough is still moving on and making quite a name for himself.

Josh White, Jr.

June 29

Students slaving through the summer trimester were rewarded with an evening of humor and song in the person of Josh White, Jr. Appearing in the Rathskeller for a three-night stand, and at Westcott Auditorium for a full-scale concert, the singer delighted audiences with the easy style and lively humor of his folk songs. One of the most popular entertainers in his field, Josh White, Jr. follows in the footsteps of his famous father, blues singer Josh White, with whom he frequently appeared as a child. He is also well-known as a television and Broadway actor, and has sung with big bands as well as solo appearances. FSU students were afforded a fine chance to enjoy the dramatic musical and humorous abilities of this very versatile performer.

Student Artist Series

Repeating their smash success in last year's "Barefoot in the Park," the talented team of Neil Simon and Mike Nichols scored another triumph this year as well. THE ODD COUPLE, the most hilarious comedy on Broadway, came to FSU in late October to expose its audience to what one reviewer has called, "an evening of group hysteria." The wildly comic action centers around two men, separated from their wives and sharing a bachelor apartment. The owner of the place, played by Harvey Stone, is a sloppy, poker-playing sport whose favorite attire a sweatshirt and sneakers; his companion, Lyle Talbot, is painstakingly neat and worried about everything from his wife to his ulcer. The ensuing conflicts between these two opposite personalities made for a truly uproarious series of events, all of which had the packed crowds laughing through every improbable but comical scene. From the standpoint of acting, scenery or pure mirth, the play left nothing to be desired except a chance to see it again!

The Odd Couple

October 25

The American Ballet Theater

October 26-28

The American Ballet Theatre presented both classic and contemporary forms of ballet during the three nights it performed on the FSU campus. The company is composed of more than fifty dancers and is the peer of such internationally celebrated institutions as England's Royal Ballet and the Russian Bolshoi company. The American Ballet had appeared at Florida State once before; the troupe performed on the opening night of Westcott Auditorium in 1953. This return performance was celebrated by three exceptional shows which drew large crowds.

Royal Hunt of the Sun

December 5-6

One of Broadway's most powerful dramatic productions, The Royal Hunt of the Sun, came to FSU in December. Written by award-winning author Peter Shaffer, the play described the Spanish conquest of the powerful Inca nation, and especially the conquest of the Inca king, Atahuallpa, by Pizarro, a Spaniard. Using only a minimum of scenery, the play drew upon the imagination of the audience to create the strange majesty of the Inca empire, and made the death of the peruvian leader appear all the more empty and tragic. But beneath the story of killing and gold lust, the play traced a deeper journey: the tormented and lonely search of a man, Pizarro, for immortality and a reason for his life. For all who attended, it was a moving experience, and a compelling look into the soul of man.

The Romeros

January 31

Back for a return performance at FSU, the Romeros, "Spain's first family of the guitar," again thrilled their audience with a brilliant display of musical talent. The quartet consisted of Celedonio, the father and only teacher of sons Celin, Pepe and Angel, and each have won individual acclaim in their various specialties in the fields of baroque, romantic, classical and Falmenco music. As a whole, the ensemble played with the precision and harmony of a string orchestra, and constantly astounded the audience with their unique feats of virtuosity. A well-deserved standing ovation brought to a fitting close this most exciting performance.

Half a Sixpence

February 8

Fresh from a smash two-season run on Broadway, the road company of the hit musical "Half a Sixpence" came to the Artist Series early in February. The play was adapted from H.G. Wells' novel, KIPPS, and tells the story of a poor, overworked clerk, Arthur Kipps, who inherits a fortune in the form of an annual income. The drastic results this inheritance has on his life and loves forms most of the drama and humor of this very light comedy. On stage, the energetic and talented cast turned every one of the musical numbers into a showstopper. But it was primarily the brilliant performance of the show's zany star, Kenneth Nelson, that kept up the frantic pace and had the audience applauding for more. Even during the curtain calls, the cast's encore numbers gave added evidence that this was the most delightful musical of the year.

Pittsburgh Symphony

March 8

The Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra presented their performance in Westcott Auditorium to both Florida State students and the community of Tallahassee.

Under the direction of William Steinberg, the program consisted of such famous compositions as "Cockaign (In London Town) Concert Overture," "Opus 40" by Elgar, depicting the lighter side of London, "Symphony No. 4 in f minor" by Tschaikowsky, portraying a blend of native folklore with Western tonal substance. Each selection filled the listener with its enchantment and emotion.

La Boheme

March 13

The Metropolitan Opera National Company made its second appearance at Florida State in the Spring. This 150 member group is sponsored by New York's Metropolitan Opera Association. In their performance on the FSU campus the company presented "La Boheme," an opera which has achieved great popularity throughout the world. "La Boheme" is the story of Mimi and Marcello and their life in the artists' section of Paris.

The Marriage of Figaro

March 14

On the second night of the Metropolitan National Opera Company's appearance at Florida State, they presented "The Marriage of Figaro." The company used Mozart's original vocal distribution in the lines of Susanna and the Countess. In doing this, they felt that they were achieving both textual authenticity and significant dramatic advantage.

The National Company was created in order to bring the traditional Grand Opera to all parts of the country. Bringing all their sets and their entire orchestra with them, they were able to expose a greater part of the American people to part of the world's musical heritage.

Theater Guild

The Theatre Guild Productions opened its season this year with a remarkable presentation of Tennessee William's play, "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof." Brick, Maggie, Big Daddy, Big Mama and the six brats played an active part in portraying decadent Southern life. The Mississippi plantation is the setting for the celebration of Big Daddy's birthday and also the scene of his death. The estrangement between Maggie and Brick, as well as the competition between Maggie and Mae for the inheritance of their father-in-law's property are the two rival forces which complicate the plot. The tension in the play held the audience's attention and added to the success of the production.

Cat on a Hot Tin Roof

Gamma Gurton's Needle

November 9-12

During the week of November 9, University Theatre presented "Gammer Gurton's Needle." This play, an imitation of Roman Comedy, is a thoroughly English play. Its characters, its dialogue, its setting, and its attitude are purely Tudor English.

The playwright, William Stevenson, has imitated the speech of the common people of his day. Therefore, the language of the play was somewhat freer than most of us expect to hear from the stage today.

My Mother, My Father and Me

March 1-5

"Trying to find out what we're about, and what the world's about," was the central problem in the University Theater's production of Lillian Hellman's "My Mother, My Father and Me." Presented in Conradi Theater in early March, the play marked the first joint effort by students of FSU and FAMU. Starring in the premiere was television and Broadway actress Carmen Mathews, who brought to her role a wealth of experience and vivacity. The play itself was a comic satire, though with a serious message. It depicted the vain efforts of a young man, Bernie, who wants the world and society to relate to him as all of us do, though he lives in a world of his own. Bernie's acceptance of the fact that he must relate to other people first was the turning point of this humorous but very moving play.

The Grass Harp

April 5-9

University Theater's fourth production, "The Grass Harp," played for a full five-night run at Conradi Theater early in April. The play, an early work of Truman Capote, is a fantasy about a small Southern town and the lives of its people. Centering around the actions of one Dolly Talbo, the story weaves a light plot filled with homespun characters and some witty dialogue. But the theme came out strongly and realistically: love and the need to understand oneself are necessary to life. Those familiar with the later work of Capote found little of the tension and dramatic power that surges through his current plots. Nonetheless, the sensitive lines of his people were both persuasive and meaningful; that there was more bright humor only served to set off the theme, and was greatly appreciated by the audience.

The Cave Dwellers

May 31 - June 3

An old abandoned theatre is the setting which was purposefully used in William Saroyan's play, "The Cave Dwellers." In order to create a biting criticism on contemporary American life, the playwright established a theory that all buildings are caves and the empty stage is the only place in which everything is still possible. The two main characters are two old actors who find sanctuary in the abandoned theatre. The stark realism in the work and the acting which the Theatre Guild provided held the audience in captivation, and those who saw the production left with queries concerning the values in our present way of life.

Opera Productions

The Fantasticks

The early Fall presentation of "The Fantasticks" started the Opera Guild's season off with a "boom." The simple tale about Love and the similarly simple setting allowed the boy and the girl and the two fathers and the wall to tell their story with the maximum of perfection. Matt and Luisa, the boy and the girl, were neighbors and as time progressed they fell in love. Although the ensuing results seem simple enough, the two fathers complicated the plot. After Luisa's "abduction" the boy decided to see the world, and their blissful lives took on harsh reality. When Matt returned from his travels, however, the four characters and the wall were able to assume their normal roles.

September 30-October 6

Faust

November 11-12

The State symphony and Opera Association again produced a stage hit with the November performance of "Faust." The opera was a musical arrangement which accompanied Goethe's well-known drama in which Dr. Faust encountered and succumbed to the Devil, Mephistopheles. The mystic sixteenth century German setting and the musical arrangement allowed the production to attain the mood which Goethe probably had in mind when he created this classic masterpiece. The music was written by Charles Gounod and the libretto by Jules Barbier and Michael Carre.

March 31 -April 1

The Merry Widow

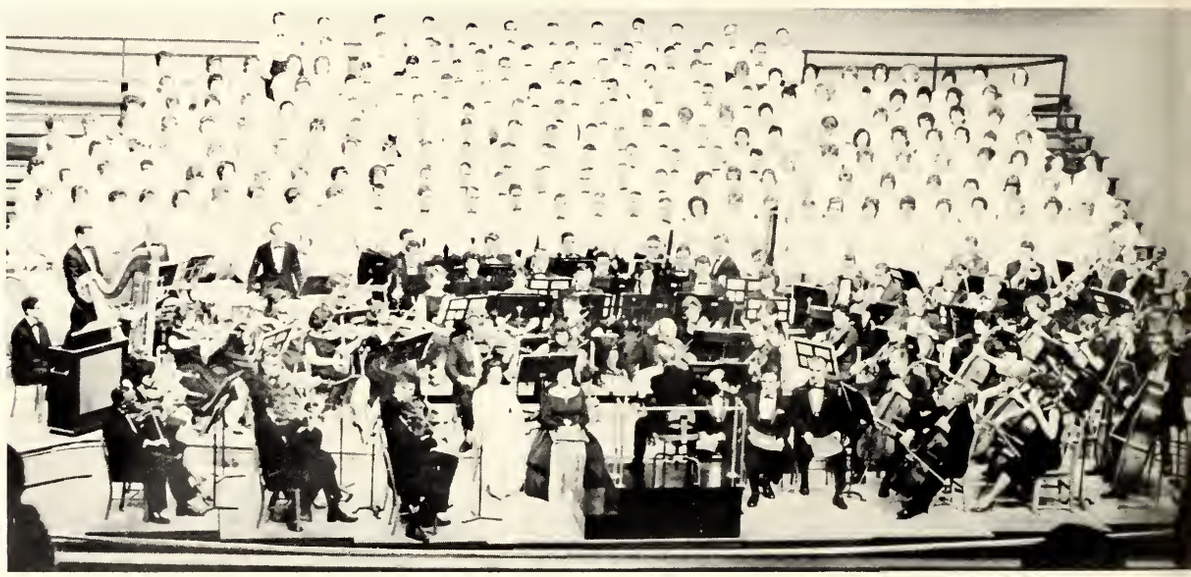
A perpetual enchantment thrilled the audience the nights of March 31st and April 1 when the Opera Guild presented Franz Lehar's sparkling operetta "The Merry Widow."

Sonia of Marsovia was a lovely and seductive widow. Since most of the wealth she inherited from her late husband consisted of mortgage on the Marsovian king's palace and the queen's jewels, it became vital to Marsovia's future that she marry a Marsovian, and not one of the many frenchmen who were pursuing her. Bungling Baron Popoff, Marsovia's Ambassador to France, attempted to match Sonia with Prince Danilo, nephew of the Marsovian king. After a merry and melodious series of incidents, true love and patriotism prevailed, thus saving the tiny country from bankruptcy.

Jennifer Black starred as the Merry Widow while John Flynt played the part of Prince Danilo.

April 10

Belshazzer's Feast



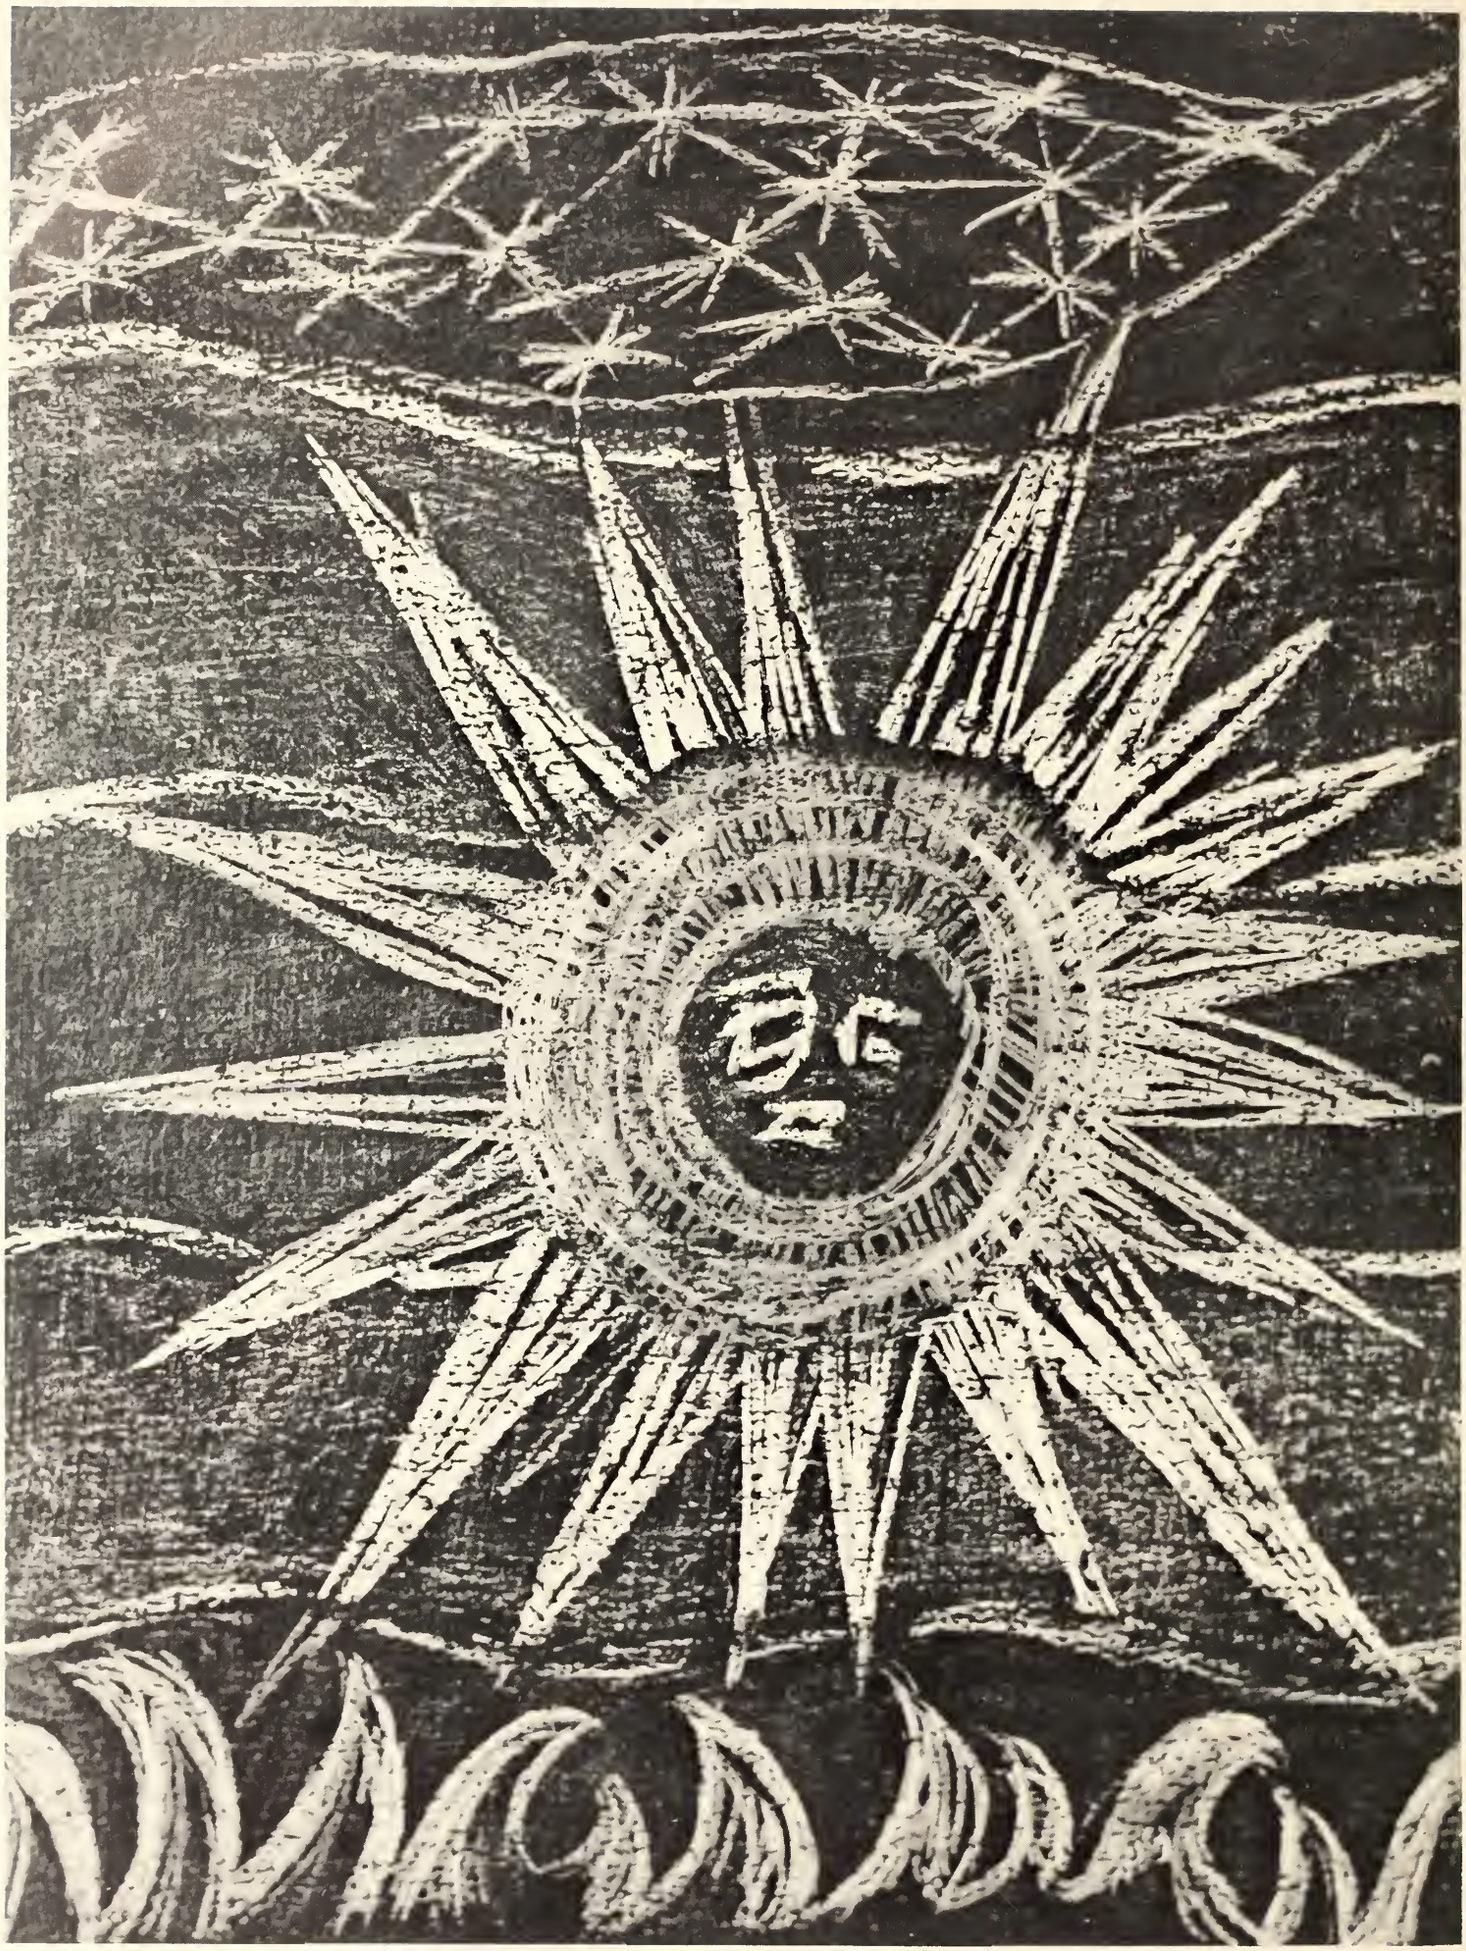
On April 10, 1967, The State Symphony of Florida, under the direction of Richard Burgin, Guest Conductor, presented Belshazzer's Feast. The work for mixed chorus was composed by William Walton. The composition contains passages from the fifth chapter of Daniel and from Psalms 81 and 137. Walton's version conveys the highly ethnocentric Hebrew view of destiny, wherein a monumental injustice coupled with symbolic injury results in the total destruction of an oriental despot.

The work was presented by the combined choruses of FSU including Choral Union, University Singers, Women's Glee Club, and Collegians.

June 9 - 13

Don Giovanni

The summer presentation of Mozart's "Don Giovanni" by the Florida State University Opera Guild reconfirmed its reputation of excellence. The story of the opera was taken from Giuseppe Bertati's play and told of the amorous adventures of Don Giovanni, a rascal and a libertine. From the murder of the Commandant of the knights of Malta to the banquet for the Stone Guest, the statue on the Commandant's grave, Giovanni demonstrated characteristics of ruthlessness and wickedness. However, the Don met his judgment when flames burst through his mansion. The moral, "sad is the fate that awaits a libertine," was evinced when this man met his death.



Greeks

Greek

Life

Sigma Chi Derby, guest night at a sorority house, fraternity weekends, house decorations for Homecoming, the excitement of receiving a bid, and rush parties are all parts of Greek life on the FSU campus. Pool parties, pinning serenades, dessert socials, and post-game parties also typify Greek activities.

Our fraternal organizations and their individual members are active in every phase of collegiate life. The Greeks strive for unity and promote interest and enthusiastic participation in not only campus, but also community affairs.

Alpha Chi Omega

Alpha Chi Omega's main purpose is to fully develop every facet of the college woman's life, including social, intellectual, and scholastic. In view of this objective, the Alpha Chi's have sisters as members of such organizations as Garnet Key, Who's Who, Junior and Sophomore Counsels, and Mortar Board. In addition, the Alpha Chi's placed second in the Homecoming skit contest, held their annual Christmas Party, participated in a Houseboy Exchange, and held a scholarship banquet.

Alpha Delta Pi

Alpha Delta Pi, founded in 1851 as the Adelphian Society, was established on the Florida State campus in 1907. Since that time ADPi's have been active in community service as well as in activities on campus.

Members of Alpha Delta Pi made weekly visits this year to the Tallahassee Convalescent Home as well as to the Children's Hospital. This year the ADPi's also adopted a Navaho Indian boy. They were proud to have placed second in the Sigma Chi Derby this spring and to have moved back into their newly-remodeled home during the second trimester.

The purpose of Alpha Gamma Delta is to mold a girl into well-rounded womanhood. Through emphasis on activities, scholarship, and high ideals, the AGD's strive for excellence. The girls of Alpha Gamma Delta have been active in campus organizations, as well as in student politics. They are proud of the five student senators and the four sisters who are listed in the Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Their activities for this year have included Homecoming, Campus Sing, Sigma Chi Derby, Gymkana, and many others which have been valuable contributions to life on the FSU campus.

Alpha Pi chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi was founded at Florida State in 1928, just thirty-one years after the first chapter was established at Barnard College of Columbia University. Since then, the Alpha Omicron Pi's have been involved with numerous campus activities including membership in student government and campus honoraries.

One of the highlights of the year was the annual Fall Weekend, held in honor of outstanding members. At this occasion, the chapter announced their fall sweetheart. Another activity of the sorority was competing in the Homecoming float contest. With the help of the Delta Chi's, the float was good enough to be named as "Best All Round."

Alpha Omicron Pi's local charity work included supporting a foster daughter and taking underprivileged children to the FSU circus.

Alpha Phi fraternity was founded on October 10, 1872, at Syracuse University. The sorority initiated the first inter-sorority conference in 1902, which is known today as the National Panhellenic Conference. It was also the first to have a visiting delegate, the forerunner of today's district governor and field secretary.

The sisters of Alpha Phi pledge themselves to the development of high standards of scholarship and character and to fostering and preserving the best traditions and ideals of college life. This year the Alpha Phi's have been busy making packets for people to collect money for the Heart Fund. For their efforts, the chapter received the Certificate of Merit from the American Heart Association.

Alpha Xi Delta

Founded in 1893 at Lombard College in 1893, Alpha Xi Delta was established on the FSU campus in the fall of 1929. Members of Alpha Xi Delta were in Angel Flight, La Petite Corps, Theater Dance, as well as in Student Government, Sophomore Council, Les Jongleurs, Village Vamps, and Fashion Inc. this year. The "Xi Strings," a well-known group composed of members of the Alpha Omega chapter of Alpha Xi Delta, performed their medleys of folk songs at fraternity socials, Florida Jaycee Convention, North Florida Fair, Military Ball, and at other campus and community affairs.

Campus Sing, Sigma Chi Derby, Greek Week, the PiKA Cane Contest, and fraternity socials were included in the Alpha Xi Delta activities this year.

The Beta Rho chapter of Chi Omega was chartered on the FSU campus in 1907. The purpose of Chi Omega is to promote friendship, sincere and creditable scholarship, social and civic service, and interest in campus activities. Their service projects this year have included sponsoring a child at Sunland and a Halloween party which they gave at the local Tuberculosis Hospital. The Chi Omegas also enjoyed participating in Homecoming activities with house decorations and float and by welcoming returning sisters. The Chi Omegas are active in campus and Student Government organizations.

Delta Delta Delta sorority was founded at Boston University in 1888 and was established on the FSU campus in 1916. Its purpose is to develop stronger and more womanly character, to develop intellectual and moral values, and to assist its members in all aspects of their University life.

One of Delta Delta Delta's service projects for this year was the award of their annual scholarship to a deserving student. This year the sorority had its Halloween weekend at the Holiday Inn. The Tri Delts also enjoyed participating in the Sigma Chi Derby and in Campus Sing. Tri Delta girls are in Tarpon Club, Angel Flight, La Petite Corps, Alpha Lambda Delta, Village Vamps, Theatre Dance, and in several other campus organizations.

DELTA DELTA DELTA OFFICERS: Pat McCreary, Vice-President; Nancy Ashley, President; Susan Richardson, Recording Secretary.

The past year was a very busy and fun-filled one for the Delta Gammas. The "Anchor Clankers" enjoyed especially the spaciousness of their new wing which was completed during the spring of 1966. The DG's adopted a blind junior high school student as part of the national "Sight Conservation and Aid to the Blind Project." They helped her with her school work and included her in many sorority activities throughout the school year.

The DG's were active in many campus activities, and their members included Junior Counselors, members of Garnet Key, Sophomore Council, WHO'S WHO, Mortified, Angel Flight, and La petite Corps, as well as Union and Student Government Officers.

Delta Zeta

In 1924 the Alpha Sigma chapter of Delta Zeta was established on the FSU campus. It is one of at least 168 such chapters in colleges throughout the United States.

Among their campus activities this year, the DZ's participated in student government and had members of Mortar Board, Garnet Key, and numerous other campus honoraries.

In the fall, the Delta Zeta's sponsored a banquet for the freshman football players, a dinner for football prospects, a float in the Homecoming parade, and their annual fall weekend, "Moonlight and Roses" held at the Holiday Inn.

Delta Zeta's also aided students at a college for the deaf, as well as helping to support Carville Hospital, an institution for the care of victims of Hansen's disease.

The Beta Nu chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta has had another exciting and outstanding year. The Thetas have contributed to projects on the national, as well as local level. The Institute of Logopedics received a chapter project, and local politicians have been aided by the willing sisters.

"You can tell when there's love in a home..." has long been a theme at the Theta house. The strength, unity, and honors which they have gained stem from this. The Thetas have joined with all Greeks and Independents in an attempt to meet the college challenge this year.

Kappa Delta

KD'S PRACTICE FOR CAMPUS SING HELD IN FEBRUARY

Kappa Delta was founded in Farmville, Virginia at Longwood College in 1897. Kappa Delts was one of the first sororities on the FSU campus.

One of the major goals of the KD's was to promote friendship among members and other girls on the FSU campus. Another was the encouragement of academic excellence and the promotion of charitable works.

KD's were kept busy by participation in varied campus activities. Among these activities was the spirited assistance given to their Gymkana finalist, Miss Peggy Edwards. Intramurals, Homecoming float, and decorations, caroling at Christmas for Dr. and Mrs. Champion and Circus helped to round out the well-filled calendar of the Kappa Delta's.

Kappa Kappa Gamma

Since 1960, when the Epsilon Zeta chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma was first established on the Florida State University campus, its women have contributed leadership, scholarship, and service to the school. This year the Kappas were proud to have among their sisters the Vice President of the Student Body, Panhellenic President, and a Union Board Chairman. In addition to this, they had members participating on Student Government and Union Board committees. Still more Kappas were active in Garnet Key, Angel Flight, Mortified, and Mortar Board.

Among their numerous activities, the sorority especially enjoyed "Mother's Weekend" in the spring. At that time, all the Kappa's mothers were invited to spend the weekend at the house.

The Florida State chapter of Phi Mu, which is the second oldest fraternity for women, has made many valuable contributions to life on the FSU campus this year. They won second place in the PKA Cane Contest, had entries in the Sigma Chi Derby and have had several service projects. The most outstanding of these was the adoption of a foster child from Tallahassee to whom they have contributed both financially and socially. Phi Mu also awards a trophy to the group on campus which has done the most Social Service work throughout the school year.

Pi Beta Phi

Florida Beta of Pi Beta Phi was chartered on this campus in 1921 and its members have lived in the "gingerbread" house on West College ever since. This year the Pi Phi's have been kept busy with their books. They have the highest active average on campus and were third in scholarship for the third successive trimester. But this has not kept them from winning the Greek Olympics, participating in Campus Sing, and hosting a semi-formal weekend at the Duval. For their philanthropic projects, the Pi Phi's have adopted a child in Oklahoma and worked for Good Will Industries.

Ph Phi's were proud to have a finalist in the Miss Gymkana contest, members of Mortar Board, Mortified, and Garnet Key as well as many dorm officers.

Omega Chapter of Sigma Kappa Sorority, founded nationally in 1894 at Colby College, Waterville, Maine, was established on the FSU campus in 1920. Since that time the chapter has been active in campus and service projects and various student organizations. During the past year the sisters and pledges worked hard on Homecoming, taking top honors by winning first place in the Pow Wow skit competition and having the "Most Humorous" float. The Omega chapter was awarded the Sigma Kappa province scholarship plaque due to her high ranking over other chapters throughout the province.

Tri Sigma's fall was highlighted by their sorority weekend which featured a Mardi Gras theme. After this, in keeping with the Sigma tradition of social service, the girls worked hard to make the Tuberculosis Drive "Bangle Day" a success.

On a national scale the Sigmas participated in the national service project, "Sigma Serves Children," by contributing to the children's ward of the North Carolina Memorial Hospital.

Spring, for the Tri Sigma's, included the sponsoring of a Scholarship Banquet in order to honor outstanding collegiates, participating in Circus Weekend, and entering the Sigma Chi Derby.

The Sigma's are especially proud of their president who served as Solicitor General of FSU.

To intensify friendship, foster a spirit of love, and to create such sentiments and perform such acts as will be conducive to the building of a nobler and purer womanhood is the creed of Zeta Tau Alpha.

Since the time of their founding ZTAs have participated actively in an outstanding program of projects. Of the more recent ones was sponsorship of a Vietnamese child.

Many Zeta sisters were active this year in Circus, Gymkana, and cheerleading. Still more were members of Village Vamps, Angel Flight, Garnet Key, and Mortified.

Zeta Tau Alpha also had many participating women in student government, including a member of the President's Cabinet and two of eight members of the University Union Board.

The Epsilon Sigma chapter of Alpha Tau Omega was established on the FSU campus in 1949. Not only active in areas of campus life, the ATO's gave a Christmas party for underpriviledged children of the community during the Christmas season.

Socially the ATO's enjoyed their annual "Little Abner" party, many post football game parties and their annual fraternity weekend.

Originated at Epsilon Sigma, the Little Sisters of the Maltese Cross played an important part in the betterment of fraternity-sorority relations.

Other activities were represented by the membership of brothers in Alpha Council, Gold Key, "Who's Who" and other campus organizations.

Delta Tau Delta was founded in Bethany, Virginia, in 1858. The Delta Phi chapter of "Delts" was established on the Florida State campus in 1949.

The Delts stress scholarship and are very proud of being nationally ranked number one scholastically for the past three years. However, scholarship is not the only way this chapter benefits the campus. The brothers are also involved in student government and other campus activities. This year the men of Delta Tau Delta participated in the annual Phi Delta Theta soap-box derby and the Sigma Chi Derby. They also spearheaded a Red Cross blood drive and helped with the rehabilitation of a local crippled child. Each year the Delts sponsor the presentation of the Sorority of the Year trophy to the sorority they feel has contributed the most to fraternal life on the campus.

Delta Chi was founded on the Florida State campus on February 14, 1960; they received their national charter in December of the same year. Since then, the brothers have been active in many phases of campus life.

To foster better fraternity-sorority relations, the Delta Chi's have sponsored a weekly feature in the FLAMBEAU entitled "Delta Chi Greek Girl of the Week." Each sorority selected several girls to run and the fraternity made the final selection.

Their main purpose, as a social fraternity, was to help their brothers acquire both a sound education and a broad social background. Keeping this in mind, the Delta Chi's had members in student government, participants in intramurals, and were active in Inter-Fraternity Council. In addition, Delta Chi took an active part in many other fraternity affiliated functions.

Founded at Washington College in 1865, the Kappa Alpha Order has as its spiritual founder Robert E. Lee. The purpose of the organization is to promote wholesome social life.

The men of Kappa Alpha, through their work on the United Fund this year, served the community as well as the University. They were active in campus activities and proud of four of their brothers who were chosen sorority "Men of the Year."

In April, the KA's enjoyed their annual "Old South" weekend including secession from the Union and a horse-and-buggy parade through campus.

Zeta Rho Zeta chapter of Lambda Chi was organized at FSU in 1950. Comprised of at least 162 chapters, they have developed into the second largest national fraternity. Lambda Chi Alpha's goal, as a social fraternity, is to both show and teach its brothers the means by which they can best utilize their college years. This is accomplished through development of character and capabilities.

Among Lambda Chi's activities this year were participation in Intramurals, sponsoring a needy children's Christmas party, assisting with Dr. Chalmers Reception, and taking part in the Founder's Day Banquet. Still more activities included an Apple Polishing, a pledge candlelight lesson, and an enjoyable "Mom-Napping."

BROTHERS OF PHI DELTA THETA ON THEIR COMMUNITY SERVICE DAY

Established in 1950, the Beta Phi chapter of Phi Delta Theta grew to a membership of eighty-five men this year. Achieving academic excellence, Phi Delta Theta placed first in scholarship ratings among FSU fraternities. Members of the chapter were also active in Student Government and varsity sports.

In order to raise contributions for the Campus drive, the Phi Delt's sponsored their annual Soap Box Derby. They also conducted a community Service Day and displayed athletic skills by winning the campus intramurals championship.

Included in Fiji's activities this year were building a Homecoming float for the parade, sponsoring a drive to aid the American Cancer Society, and taking an active part in the intramural activities of the University. In the spring they enjoyed their "Fiji Island" Weekend, which they had at their new house on campus.

Phi Kappa Psi

After being colonized in 1961, Phi Kappa Psi fraternity received its charter in December of 1962. It became a conservative social organization with varied campus interests. Phi Kappa Psi stressed the attainment of good standards of scholarship and involvement in the social aspects of college life here at Florida State.

One of their main service projects for the year was the giving of their annual Christmas party for retarded children from Marianna. The Phi Kappa Psi's were also active socially as they sponsored both "Inferno" and "Red Garter" parties.

Phi Kappa Tau

Since its establishment on March 5, 1949, the Beta Iota chapter of Phi Kappa Tau has excelled in many separate fields of activity. While emphasizing the dual goals of scholarship and social life, the men continually stressed the characteristics on which the fraternity was founded: the worth of the individual, Christian ideals, and democracy.

The Phi Tau's actively participated in such organizations as the Arnold Air Society, IFC Judiciary, and varsity and intramural athletics. This year the Phi Tau's won their fifth consecutive intramural championship and placed six players on the Greek All-Star football team.

For this year's Homecoming, the Phi Tau's worked with the Sigma Kappa's to produce an award-winning float. They also sponsored a Christmas party for needy children, established the Little Sisters of the Laurel, and participated in various college and community service projects.

PHI TAU'S TUG-A-WAR FOR GREEK OLYMPICS

Pi Kappa Alpha

THE PIKES CARRY THEIR SOAP BOX UP COLLEGE AVE. FOR ANOTHER RUN IN THE SOAP BOX DERBY

Pi Kappa Alpha was founded during the Civil War by five young Confederate soldiers, who later met at the University of Virginia. Since then, the fraternity has become "the most outstanding college fraternity today," having the largest National Office Staff, National Housing Corporation and more members of Congress than any other campus organization. Carrying on the tradition, this year's Delta Lambda Chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha had more Student senators than any other fraternity, in addition to several class officers and justices.

Athletically, the Pikes were also outstanding. Such members as freshman track captain Bob Ward, eighth-ranked amateur golfer Hugh Green, and holder of the all-time basketball record, Charlie Funk, were some of the Pikes active in FSU sports.

Beta Eta chapter of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity was founded at Florida State in 1950.

Many of the Pi Kap brothers were found this year as participants in the FSU Circus and in numerous varsity sports. Still more served actively in areas of Student Government and several others were chosen to be in campus honorary fraternities.

Pi Kappa Phi brothers also enjoyed a variety of social functions this year. Among these was the annual Rose Ball held in March at which Connie Gonzalez was crowned Rose Ball Queen. Members of Pi Kappa Phi also enjoyed combo parties, their annual spring weekend, and numerous socials with the campus sororities throughout the year.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

With 130,000 brothers strong, Sigma Alpha Epsilon is today the largest Greek letter fraternity in America. The first chapter of the fraternity was founded March 9, 1856, at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, by eight men who had in mind the establishment of a bond which would hold them together years after their college days and which would help them develop fully as individuals.

SAE has continued to expand rapidly since its founding, and on March 5, 1949, Florida Beta chapter at Florida State received its charter. The chapter at Florida State is known not only for its active social life, but also for its wealth of true fraternal spirit. An SAE can never forget for a moment the true meaning of his brotherhood, and the intense love the members have for it.

SAE'S RELAX AT A GAME OF CARDS

Sigma Chi

Epsilon Zeta chapter of Sigma Chi has again been very active on campus this year. Brothers participated in student government, athletics, and various other organizations on campus. The Sigs also took part in fraternity intramurals.

The twelfth annual Sigma Chi Derby was a fun-filled event for all the participating sororities. On a cold day in February, the Greeks enjoyed the tug-of-war, egg-throwing contest, and musical ice water while vying for the overall Derby trophy and the new Spirit trophy. The Derby was an enjoyable and exciting event at FSU this year.

Sigma Nu

Founded in 1869 at Virginia Military Institute Sigma Nu Fraternity grew to rank seventh in the nation in number of chapters. Though their heritage lay in the South, Sigma Nu was a coast-to-coast fraternity. They were unique in that their guiding principle was honor.

Activities for the Sigma Nu's this year included sponsoring runners-up in both the Miss Gymkana and the Greek Goddess contests, participating in parties for underpriviledged and orphaned children of the area, and having a brother tapped as a member into Gold Key, an FSU leadership honorary.

OFFICERS: Fran Holden, Treasurer; Don Hartke, Vice-President; Charlie Mills, President; Ron Eichkoff, Pledge Trainer; John Chambers, Recorder.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

TALLAHASSEE FIREMEN FIGHT A FIRE AT THE SIG EP HOUSE

Sigma Phi Epsilon was the second largest fraternity in the United States in the number of organized chapters. The fraternity was founded at Richmond, Virginia in 1901, and organized on the FSU campus in 1951.

Members of Sigma Phi Epsilon held positions in Student Government this year including Cabinet positions, Attorney-General, Chief Justice of Honor Court, and Vice-Chairman of one of the political parties on campus. As a part of their annual service project, the chapter collected money for the Heart Fund. The Sig Ep's were also proud of their brother who was chosen Student Body Vice-President in the 1967 Student Government election.

Founded at Norwich University in 1856, Theta Chi fraternity was established on the FSU campus in the spring of 1949.

The motto "Alma mater first and Theta Chi for alma mater" was evidenced in the phases of campus participation this year: Student Government, circus, swimming, track, baseball, football, Inter-Fraternity Council, and several other activities. The Theta Chi's also participated in fraternity intramurals this year. They were proud of their outstanding brothers who held such honors as Greek Man of the Year and several sorority Men of the Year.

Chi Phi

Chi Phi was colonized on the Florida State campus on February 16,1965. It is the oldest social fraternity and was first established in 1824. The fraternity has as its goals fellowship, scholarship and leadership on the college campus. The activities which the FSU chapter participated in this year included parties, socials, service projects, athletic intramurals, and assisting children from a foster home in Tallahassee. The Chi Phi's had an active and exciting year and made many meaningful contributions to the fraternal and campus life at Florida State University.

Tau Epsilon Phi

ANDREA WRIGHT
Sweetheart

Tau Epsilon Phi is a social fraternity aiming at the increased awareness of its members in the academic, social, athletic, and fraternal aspects of college life. The Florida State TEP chapter was founded in 1954. It is a growing fraternity both here and in the state with six chapters, making it the largest fraternity in Florida.

This year the TEPS were noted for their valuable service projects within the local community, sportsmanship in athletic contests, active interest and participation in extra-curricular organizations on campus, and, of course, their fine parties.

Seniors

Ten Seniors in Hall of Fame

The names, faces, and outstanding records of ten men and women of the Class of 1967 have been added to the Florida State University Hall of Fame. They are Nancy Sue Ashley of Ft. Walton Beach; Joy Dickinson of Orlando; Sue Dicus of Clearwater; Nancy Holland of Bartow; Joan Kux of Tallahassee; Bruce Jon Miller of St. Petersburg; Timothy Prugh of Daytona Beach; Mary Lee Phillips of Lake City; JoAnna Romer of Miami; and Cynthia Skelton of St. Petersburg Beach.

Greatly respected by both students and faculty, membership in the Hall of Fame is the highest honor accorded a senior. The choice is based on the contributions these people have made to Florida State as undergraduates in all areas of achievement in scholarship, clubs, publications, student government, music and drama, athletics, and the military. The ten are traditionally chosen on a point system and by the Hall of Fame Selection Committee, headed by the Junior Class President.

This year, thirty-six outstanding FSU seniors and graduate students were honored with the greatest distinction of their college careers: election to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Ballots were prepared by the Who's Who Nominating Committee and, under Student Government, published the list of names of students worthy of the honor. This was then submitted to the student body for a vote. Besides meeting high academic standards, Who's Who members must demonstrate leadership and service to the campus community, as well as willingness to lend time and effort. All those elected have made outstanding contributions in this regard to FSU and the community.
